

ALLIED HOPE OF U. S. AT MEET KILLED

Bank Case Found

NY ASSOCIATED PRESS
RELEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.
FARGO, N. D., May 18.—Thirty-five secret indictments against 13 individuals have been returned by the special county grand jury investigating the affairs of the defunct Scandinavian American Bank of Fargo, and the relation of those affairs with the Bank of North Dakota, George Schafer, assistant state attorney general, announced today.

VANDERLIP FEARS GERMAN REVOLTS, BLAMES FRANCE

Banker Predicts Outbreaks Unless Reasonable Attitude Is Compelled.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—The Geneva conference was described as "more of a clinic than a conference" in a cablegram from Frank A. Vanderlip, New York banker, to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, which was read at last night's session of that organization's annual convention.

"It has exposed the variety, nature and extent of the diseases from which Europe is suffering," Vanderlip said, "but has performed no surgical operation and has administered no important dose of medicine."

"Owing to the prohibition against discussion of more important subjects," the cablegram said, "the economic significance of Russia has been almost entirely emphasized."

Vanderlip added that unless "strong statesmanship compelled a reasonable attitude on the part of France," the "current situation would be critical, since nationalist plots and 'significant' increasing prices promise great social hardship which may result in revolutionary outbreaks."

After reviewing the actions taken at the conference and interpreting them from the viewpoint of international relations, Vanderlip added that "the attitude of the American government with respect to Europe has been so eminently wise that I feel like trusting the administration fully, and that we have better not embarrass it with suggestions."

The United States should study a plan for segregating part of its gold reserve to help stabilize European currencies after budgets are balanced, Vanderlip declared, but added a warning against "involving our bank reserves" in this manner.

Wine, Beer Issue Forced in Congress

By LAURENCE M. BENEDICT, United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Liberals in the House joined hands today in a vigorous campaign to inject the wet and anti-liquor issue into this fall's elections.

Their hope is to force a vote in the House, and perhaps also in the Senate, on the proposition of legalizing light wines and 2.75 per cent beer, so that people over the country will know just where the 1922 edition of congressional candidates stand on "voluntarism," and can "sway," accordingly.

The fight for a wet-dry vote in the House will center around a bill introduced by Representative Hill, Maryland, Republican, giving each congressional district local option this fall on the manufacture of beer and wines, to be used only in homes and taxed at 20 cents a gallon.

Accusing Wife Begs Freedom for Hubby

BERKELEY, May 18.—With the aid of an interpreter and much conversation in English and Italian, a reconciliation was effected in Judge Robert Edgar's court today.

Jennie Cassaro, 2235 Eighth street, accused her husband, Angelo, laborer, of beating her. Yesterday she demanded that he be sent to jail. Today she changed her mind.

"Don't send him to jail, judge," she pleaded. "He's promised to be good. As long as he brings home his money and treats me and the children all right I'm willing to give him another chance."

Upon Cassaro's promise to "be good" the judge dismissed the case.

Church to Meet in New England Town

NEW YORK, May 17.—The second annual national conference of Social Service Workers of the Episcopal church will meet at Wickford, Rhode Island, June 20, 21 and 22, according to plans made public by Charles N. Lathrop, executive secretary of the Social Service department of the church.

Delegates from practically all of the 86 dioceses and missionary districts of the communion will attend.

Building and Loan Men Meet Tomorrow

Questions of building, housing, the "own your own home" movement and various kindred matters will be discussed at the annual State Convention of the California Building and Loan Associations, which opens at the Hotel Oakland tomorrow. The convention will be attended by 200 delegates from all parts of the state. It is announced by the executive committee in charge, which held a preliminary meeting this morning.

The delegates will be the guests of honor at a luncheon to be given them tomorrow at the Hotel Oakland by the Chamber of Commerce and the united civic clubs and associations of the city. Joseph H. King, president of the Chamber of Commerce, will preside.

"Liniment Jag" Is in Vogue in Illinois

MATTOON, Ill., May 20.—"Liniment jags" are the latest in Mattoon. So many men have been arrested here lately, in intoxicated conditions, with liniment in their pockets that steps are being taken to control or prohibit its sale. Labels on the bottles state the contents are 70 per cent alcohol.

HOOVER MOVES TO HALT COAL PROFITEERING

In Clash With Operators Secretary Warns Public Will Be Protected.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Secretary of Commerce Hoover today warned the coal operators in his conference with them here against attempting to jeopardize the public interest.

Hoover's statement was made during a sharp clash with G. H. Caperton of the New River coal district of West Virginia, who announced his readiness to make any committee to interfere with his business.

Private committees to regulate the distribution and price of coal previously had been proposed by Hoover. This proposal first was adopted, with Caperton casting the only dissenting vote. Later the question was reopened to discuss regulation of prices specifically.

Manifestly angry at Caperton's statement, Hoover declared with emphasis that while he did not believe the government should extend its arm into business, nevertheless the government will insist on taking a hand in business when the public interest is threatened.

Hoover told the operators that whether they liked it or not, the public interest would be protected. Something more than "committee interference" would follow any attempt by private business to conduct its affairs in a manner injurious to the public.

Bitterness against the United Mine Workers of America crept out in spite of Hoover's wish. S. P. Hutchinson and C. E. Heller, of the Westmoreland Coal Company of Philadelphia, attacked the union.

The conference agreed to the Garfield wage award as a basis for fixing maximum prices.

LEADS WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Secretary Hoover today ordered the leading operators of non-union bituminous coal fields for a government plan of "getting the coal industry by voluntary action to put a stop point on increase of coal prices" during the period of the existing coal strike.

The plan, which was approved by about forty operators, who met with Hoover, calls for the creation of a committee of operators with government and consumers representatives serving on it in each district where coal is being produced through which all orders for coal will be cleared.

A similar general committee will be set up in Washington and Hoover assured the coal operators that he had Attorney General Daugherty's opinion that such "co-operative action to reduce and hold down prices in the public interest would be legal."

Blasts Wreck Three Coal Mine Plants

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE. LEADS WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 18.—Three terrific explosions today smashed three coal mine plants four miles above Turtle Creek in this county and rocked the countryside for a considerable distance.

Matthew Patterson, said to be a leader of the United Mine Workers, is under arrest, and Sheriff Woodside's office announces other arrests.

The tipple at the mine of Sheelman Brothers was blown to bits. A tipple at the mine of Sylvia Brothers, half a mile away, was badly wrecked. In this instance the explosive was improperly located. Several minutes later the tipple at the Good Hope mine, two miles away, was blown up.

All three mines affected have been working continuously since the miners' strike began, April 1.

Chinese Unite to Block Sun Yat Sen

HONG KONG, May 17 (By the Associated Press). — Negotiations are in progress between the South China government at Canton and both the northern factions to prepare a northward expedition by the army of Sun Yat Sen, head of the Canton government.

The Southern government's main army is moving at present along the border between Kwang Tung and Kiangsi provinces, near the town of Nanyang.

The recently-reported break between Sun Yat Sen and General Chiang-Min, head of the South China forces, is not serious, it was declared in well-informed quarters here. Indications point to a complete settlement between them in the near future.

LOVERS KEPT APART FOR SILLY REASON

"Now, see here, old man, I'll tell you right out, face-to-face, man-to-man, why I can't spend the week-end with you people at Pinchurst."

"Oh, but Jack, you are coming, aren't you? Gee whiz, man, the wife's sister is out there and she's a peach. If I do say a myself, she thought you were terribly nice when you met her last summer. I don't mind telling you it will break her heart if you don't come."

"Aw, say now! Maybe I wouldn't like to meet her again. That's why I am not coming, old man. I fell for that girl pretty hard last summer and I don't want her to see me looking like a tramp. Rather not see her at all. I am low on clothes and no matter how I figure it I can't get a new suit for a month at least. Believe me, Jack, it's darn hard for me to keep away from the place where Miss Smith lives."

"So that's the way things stand, eh? Now you listen to me. I am going to get you over to Mill Valley if I have to take you in a barrel. That's not going to be necessary, though. First, you go with me to Cherry's at 528 13th street and pick out a good-looking new suit. If you can't make your first payment, I'll do it for you and you can pay me back when your business picks up again. Cherry's allow a fellow to make easy terms and you can pay something each month till your suit's paid for. Cherry's store is at 528 13th street. — Advertisement.

MERRIAM WILL ENTER RACE FOR SPEAKERSHIP

In View of Other Candidates Long Beach Man Has Small Chance.

Bearing out a prediction made less than a week ago, Assemblyman Frank S. Merriam of Long Beach has had coupled with the announcement of his candidacy for re-election an early campaign to make him speaker of the lower House at Sacramento. Merriam's announcement carries a long list of signatures of prominent Long Beach men.

"It is assumed by party leaders," says the Long Beach Press, "that he will be discovered. Up at Fort Bragg if Mr. Merriam is returned to Sacramento he will in all probability be elected speaker for the coming term."

When it is remembered that Merriam was an opponent of the state administration and the King tax bill, that his friends now are the political enemies of Governor Stephens and that P. M. Wright, father of the Wright bill and a stalwart administration man, is a candidate for the speakership, the grounds for the "assumption" are not easily explained.

Jack Peters, floor leader last season, is being urged for the place; Albert S. Rosenshine of San Francisco, speaker pro-tem, is another, and H. W. Wright, present speaker, may be back after the job.

CHANCES NOT BRIGHT.

Merriam has many friends in the northern part of the state, but it cannot be said that "party leaders" hereabouts "assume" he will be selected speaker.

Some special interest is being directed at the Farm Bureau meeting at Nelson's Grove, near Woodland, on Saturday, for the regular prediction has been made that Governor Stephens will make formal announcement of his candidacy and open up with some of his campaign ammunition. It is possible that the governor will do nothing of the kind.

The main activity in the camp of Friend Richardson, who is seeking the Republican nomination for the governorship, has been the organization of an association of country editors for the Berkeley or Long Beach man. The executive committee of this new body includes E. C. Chestead, Argus, Petaluma, president; W. P. Mixon, Mail, Woodland, secretary; Sherman McDowell, Times-Star, Ukiah, treasurer; Will F. Blake, Advocate, Gilroy; F. E. MacKinder, Star, St. Helena; M. F. Cochran, Independent, San Rafael; Robert W. Walker, Times-Herald, Vallejo.

FOR JOHNSON CAMPAIGN.

Senator Hiram Johnson's San Francisco campaign committee will occupy a suite of rooms on the tenth floor of the Chronicle building, has been announced by Sheriff Tom P. Finn. John D. Nagle is to be in charge. It is expected that the executive committee names will be ready for publication within a week.

Enmet Donahue, an attorney of Petaluma, has announced his candidacy for the assembly in the Twelfth District. He is a veteran of the World War and his opponent is A. Forest Stevens of Healdsburg, the incumbent. Herbert Scudder is under arrest, also in the race.

From Watsonville comes a statement from H. E. Mills, former county clerk, that published statements that he will run for the assembly are not correct. "I have no intention of running," Miller writes.

In the Thirteenth District Hiram E. Casey, Santa Rosa, has announced his candidacy to succeed L. E. Putwiler, who is not certain he will run again.

Get Acquainted

with each other and with Oakland stores

Man is dependent socially and economically upon his fellow men. The more acquaintances he has the greater will be his pleasure and happiness in giving and receiving the benefits that come from association.

Absorption in business, in one's own affairs to the exclusion of others, is a mistake that always has its reaction sometime in life.

Individuals should spend more time in getting acquainted. The citizens of a community should know each other as far as possible and should thoroughly know their city.

How many citizens of Oakland know their stores?

How many try to get acquainted with what home institutions offer before crossing the bay?

"I never dreamed you carried" this or that "in such great variety," is an expression often heard in this and doubtless other Oakland stores. That is because people fail to come in and get acquainted.

Get acquainted with the merchandise of your home stores, not from any sense of duty to buy what you do not want, but that your comparisons may be based upon first-hand knowledge.

This store extends its cordial welcome and a desire for better acquaintance.

The above is a reprint of "Capwell's" ad of May 16th. We gladly give further publicity to the thoughts and sentiments expressed by our esteemed neighbors.

MEMBERSHIP IN KLAN NO CRIME, ASSERTS DECOTO

Prosecution Under Syndicalism Law, Is Also Held Impossible.

There is no law in the state of California, under which persons can be prosecuted for the mere fact of membership in the Ku Klux Klan, nor can they be prosecuted under the criminal syndicalism law, District Attorney Ezra Decoto said yesterday, in a statement concurring with a recent opinion of Attorney General U. S. Webb.

Decoto reiterated his denial that the names of any Alameda county officials appear on the list submitted to him by District Attorney Woolwine of Los Angeles.

This membership list of the Klan was seized by Southern California officials in a raid on the Klan headquarters in Los Angeles.

Decoto added that he had noticed the names of one discharged policeman and of one member of the Oakland police force on the list.

Investigation of the Klan's membership in this jurisdiction is proceeding, Chief of Police O'Brien leaves tonight for Los Angeles to consult with District Attorney Woolwine, in order to obtain certain information regarding the doings of the Klan in the south, prior to taking action in the cases of the nine San Francisco police officers whose names appear on the Klan's roster.

Membership in the Ku Klux Klan was vigorously denied by Dr. E. V. Tiffany, autopsy surgeon, and by Maury L. Diggs, architect, both of Oakland, and by Police Chief B. P. Becker and Police Officer R. M. Beagle, both of Piedmont.

According to unconfirmed reports, the names of these men appeared on the Klan roster. Dr. Tiffany said he had attended a meeting at which the Klan was discussed some months ago, but had never joined.

Diggs said he had signed an application blank almost a year ago, but added that he had never become a member.

Police Chief Becker of Piedmont said that he had been approached by one William McEae, an alleged organizer of the Klan, but that he had never joined its ranks.

Patrolman Beagle claimed that he had never had any relation with the Klan, and advanced the theory that his must be a case of mistaken identity.

Inglewood Klan Presses Booz Case

LOS ANGELES, May 18.—Attorney Paul Barkdale, D'Orr, representing Klan officials, today announced that a delegation of Inglewood residents will march to the United States attorney's office to present again evidence declared to have been taken in the raid on the Bladen home.

The Klansmen, discarding robes and hoods, held their regular meeting here last night.

Aviator Divorced By Operatic Aspirant

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—Madam Clemence Warden, Thompson Gates, once an operatic aspirant and the protégée of Madame Sembrich, was granted a divorce today from Ivan R. Gates, aviator and promoter of aeronautic enterprises.

She married him in San Rafael, November 18, 1916. Desertion was the only allegation.

She was given her decree by Judge George Calanias.

Mrs. Gates gave up her operatic career when she married Frank Thompson, millionaire steamship and railroad magnate, who later died. She was today given the custody of her son, Frank Thompson.

Mrs. Gates declared that she induced most of her aviator husband's enterprises.

SHOOT TO KILL, ORDER TO POLICE IN CHICAGO WAR

Dead Lines Fixed by Police Around New Buildings to End Outrages.

CHICAGO, May 18.—(By International News Service.)—Police "dead lines" were established today about buildings constructed under the Landis award to protect them from bombing and fires at the hands of terrorists.

Guards were stationed at strategic positions. All persons unable to explain satisfactorily their presence are to be apprehended and the guards have orders to "shoot to kill" if resistance is offered. The situation has taken on the aspects of martial law.

The confession of John Miller, driver of the automobile from which two policemen were shot and killed a week ago in an outbreak of violence attacking certain factors of the building trades unions was on record today.

Miller said to have named Charles Duzakus and "Floater" Stanley as occupants of the car.

He said, did the shooting.

Officials continued today to receive letters threatening reprisals for the arrest of "Big Tim" Murphy, Fred Stader, "Con" Shear and other labor leaders held as instigators of the "reign of terror" which has followed opposition of several building trades unions to the Landis wage award.

Seek to Administer Estate of Medau

Edith Blakely and Herbert A. Steinbach today filed a petition for letters of administration of the estate of Peter H. Medau, who died on May 7 at the age of 87. The estate is estimated to be worth $35,000 and consists of real estate in San Francisco and Oakland and cash in banks.

Medau's will bequeathes his home at 1019 Chester street, Oakland, and $10,000 to his sister, Wilhelmina Medau, in trust until the time of her death, when it will go to Edith Blakely, a niece, who is to live with and care for Wilhelmina Medau.

Gerhard Medau, a nephew, is given $10,000 and Mrs. Maggie J. Barton, a friend, is bequeathed $2,000. The residue of the estate, the will directs, is to be divided into 100 shares and proportioned to the children of Medau, his nephews, grandnephews and grand-nephews.

Turkish Misrule Return Opposed

SMYRNA, May 17.—This town is in effervescence and a deep anxiety is noticeable everywhere as a result of the peace proposals of the Allies (to return the Smyrna district to the Turks). The news of the armistice proposal was received by the Mohammedan population with great enthusiasm.

The Greek army is awaiting the development of things. The Greek High Commissioner is receiving daily deputations from all parts of Ionia urging him to convey to the Greek government their anxiety over the possible return of Turkish rule.

The Greek Catholic community of the town has sent an appeal to the Allies asking them to take action to save Asia Minor from the menace of the return of the Turks.

House of David Sect Invited to Capital

SACRAMENTO, May 18.—Members of the famous "House of David" religious sect have been invited by the Whiskerino Club to come to Sacramento for the "Days of '49" celebration.

The following telegram was dispatched to them by Chief Whiskerino Clyde Seavey:

"The Sacramento Whiskerinos cordially invite you to the 'Days of '49' celebration. You possess the necessary requirements for membership in the Whiskerino Club and it is a pleasure to declare you honorary members of the same. Your famous hair tonic would make a big hit at the celebration."

King George V. of England is the only other person who has been named an honorary member of the Whiskerino Club.

Brentwood Woman Dies in Berkeley

BERKELEY, May 18.—Mrs. Hannah Morris, wife of C. B. Morris, member of a pioneer family of Brentwood, Costa Rica, died today at a local hospital at the age of fifty-eight. Mrs. Morris was born in Solano county, her parents being old-time residents of California. She was the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Shaffer of Brentwood, and a sister of George Shaffer of that city. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Brentwood.

S. F. Force Increased For Shrine Conclave

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—Chief of Police Daniel O'Brien today issued special orders to cover the convention of the Shriners in this city next month, which will result in a great increase in the number of patrolmen on duty in the downtown and hotel district. All members of the detective department with the exception of 10 detective sergeants and shotgun squadsteuths will put on their uniforms and do patrol duty.

INNOCENT MEN SENT TO PRISON, ASSERTS EXPERT

Captain W. I. Day Tells Cases of Blunders By State Courts.

Captain William I. Day, a former member of the board of prison directors, addressed the luncheon-meeting of the Progressive Business club at the Hotel Oakland yesterday. He dwelt upon his experiences in securing the release of men given life sentences in San Quentin.

One of the cases was that of a man whom, the speaker said, had been given a life sentence by a judge who was under the influence of liquor.

He was railroaded by a drunken judge, and he has been out now for seven years and is doing well.

"Another case was that of a young fellow who was sent to prison from Los Angeles. It was a plain case of railroaded. He was on his way to prison before witnesses in his behalf could be secured. It was shown that he could not possibly have been at the scene of the crime at the time of its commission."

He cited the case of a young man named Walters who is serving a life sentence on a murder charge and who is working out what is said to be a perfect single finger print system.

"Everyone who has seen Walters' idea demonstrated says it is the greatest thing of its kind in the way of identification," the speaker said.

Frank Lloyd, vice president of the Progressive Business club, presided.

U. S. Agent Scores Fresno Policemen

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—Albert A. Elliott, special federal narcotic agent, charged upon his return here today that the arrest of himself and three other government agents at Fresno last Monday was a deliberate interference with the performance of their duty and prevented the consummation of important raids they had planned in Fresno Chinatown.

The federal agents were arrested by Police Sergeant Wickstrom and Patrolmen Burr and Blackingame, who have been charged with interference with government officers in the performance of their duty. Elliott said their cases had been presented to the federal grand jury and the government would press them to the limit. Elliott and his fellow officers were finally released by the police lieutenant in charge after they had been taken to Fresno police headquarters.

BOY ROYALISTS SAVED.

STARLIGHT

Virginia's friend, Angela Brown, selected a new dress for Virginia that worked splendidly. Virginia's friend, the good woman, was very taken with her. Virginia's friend, the good woman, was very taken with her. Virginia's friend, the good woman, was very taken with her.

Opening the letter addressed in an unfamiliar handwriting I turned quickly to the signature. My intuition had not been deceived. The signature read: "Yours as always, Theodore Stratton."

"You poor child; some young woman, with a strident voice, tells me through the phone that you are ill. I am so sorry, but I am sure that the good God knows that we need you on earth and so you will pull through."

"Except for your being ill, I am rather glad that we do not have to make a place for you in my next picture. Writing in Paris, although it has been done, is rather a sad mess."

"In my next picture there is a part that was just made for you. It calls for a character that is quaint, innocent, self-sacrificing and sweet—there, how do you like it? I am in love with just that kind of character."

"I called today to tell you that we are going on location and for you to be ready when we return to play with me. However, I shall not expect you now until we are casting a new picture, but I will probably see you before that."

"I have ordered my florist to send you some posies every day. I hope you enjoy them, and believe me, my dear child, I am, 'Yours as always,'

"THEODORE STRATTON."

"Kitty," I called, have I had flowers every day?"

"Gobs of them," she answered. "Tommy sent some, John Storm contributed. But I nearly passed away, Virginia, when flowers began arriving from Theodore Stratton. He has sent a bunch of orchids alternating with a bunch of roses daily. Look around and you will see them. Where did you meet him, Virgie?"

"I told her the same old story and passed her over my letter. 'That's right, Virgie, he is trying to work you good. Cuddle him along until he gives you the best part he's got, then throw him down hard.'"

"But I couldn't do that, Kitty. I couldn't do that. It wouldn't be right."

"Well, I like that. Don't you know that Theodore Stratton, and every like him, are trying to work you and girls like you always? You're not so conceited as to think that Theodore Stratton is having a part written for you in one of his pictures because he has found out just by looking at you, that you're a genius. Nothing doing, Virginia. You're just a new kind of toy, that's all. You are good looking but, so are thousands of others here. You appeal to Stratton because you add innocence to beauty. The others are worldly-wise."

"I don't consider it wrong for a girl to take all she can get from a man of his kind and give as little in return as possible. That is exactly what he is trying to do."

"But what do they call us when we play the game exactly as they do?" she continued vindictively. "They call us 'vamps' and 'salamanders' and women without souls and worse names than that."

"Don't look shocked, Virginia. You'll have to learn the things I am telling you. Didn't Rita tell you? She went through it all."

"Yes, Rita told me. I reluctantly answered, 'It was when she was quarreling with Herb, and I thought it was because she was angry with him that she said mean things about all men.'"

"You mustn't wish, as I have so often before, that I had never come out here to go into pictures."

"Oh, don't take it so much to heart. Pictures are not any worse than anything else where a girl has to earn a living. I wish you could hear some of the stories that the nurses told me in the hospital. And there was a little stenographer there while I was whose history was one great tragedy."

"Is life so terrible, Kitty, for the girl who has to work?"

"Life is terrible for anybody who has to work."

"But are all men rous and satyrs?"

"No, not all of them. But there are enough of them, my dear, to leave the lump pretty effectual, and it's up to the girl 'cold turkey' all the time. If you can steal your heart and make your brain work, you can get along all right. But that's the great trouble with all of us—we work our hearts overtime and let some man come along and take it out and play with it a while and see how it beats under his hands, and then when we wake up some morning and find that we are heartless, he tells us he doesn't care for us any more. Then most of us go to the devil. That's what I did."

"And I tried to make every man that I met afterward pay, and pay well, for the hurt that one man had given me. But it isn't any good. I think I have just hurt myself more than I have them."

"I've had a rather good time with you, Virgie, while you were ill. But now I expect it's 'on my way' again."

"Why, what do you mean, Kitty?"

"Virginia, it is as much as your reputation is worth—moving around with Kitty Dalton. You will hear everything bad about me. They even call me a 'hop head.'"

"But you're not, Kitty—you're not."

"Not any more," was the surprising confession.

Work Begins On Idol's Eye Scenery

Contracts were signed yesterday by Paul Steindorff and Ferris Hartman with Harry Tyler, a former Oakland boy, who became a protégé of Joseph Graham, for the scenery to be used in the forthcoming comic opera season at the auditorium.

Tyler has made an extensive study of lights and colors. He left Oakland to go to New York, where his work attracted instant attention from Urban, and he was employed to design and paint the scenery for a number of big eastern productions. He was also technical advisor for many of the motion picture companies in the matter of scenery. He devised and painted the remarkable stage settings in the "Passion Flower," in which Norma Talmadge starred.

While handling the scenic work for a number of stock companies in the east his name was featured in the Saturday advertising with those of the stars and authors. Tyler immediately started work upon the settings for "The Idol's Eye," which is to be the first of the comic operas to be presented by Hartman and his company.

AUTOS KILLED 12,000 IN YEAR

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—During 1920 automobiles in the United States caused injuries to 1,500,000 people; 12,000 of which were fatal, Walter A. Chowden, president of the San Francisco Society of Safety Engineers, told members of the Mutual Business Club at a luncheon yesterday at the Palace Hotel. More than 61 per cent of the accidents, continued

Chowden, have been caused by incompetent and reckless driving. Chowden presented the following statistics:

Twenty-five per cent of accidents are due to carelessness at street or road intersections.
Nineteen per cent to carelessness in driving in open country.
Ten per cent to cars being struck while parked.
Nine per cent to faulty brakes.
Six per cent to skidding.
Four per cent to incorrect driving at curves on country roads.
Two per cent to collisions with street cars.
Two per cent to glaring headlights.
Twenty-three per cent to miscellaneous forms of carelessness.
He continued:
"The death rate from automobile accidents has increased in thirteen years from 4 1-10 per cent to 9 4-10 per cent per one thousand people. "The death rate from railroad accidents has decreased from 16 9-10 per cent to 7 4-10 per cent. Street car accidents have shown a reduction of 1 2-10 per cent."

"The average losses per accident in connection with automobiles is $76.50. The annual loss from this source is $34,000,000. This does not entail the loss sustained through court maintenance, inability to use the automobile, etc."

"The total loss through automobile accidents is $50,000,000 per annum, or approximately $15 per capita for the State of California."

Honest Advertising

THIS is a topic we all hear now-a-days because so many people are inclined to exaggerate. Yet has any physician told you that we claimed unreasonable remedial properties for Fletcher's Castoria? Just ask them. We won't answer it ourselves, we know what the answer will be. That it has all the virtues to-day that was claimed for it in its early days is to be found in its increased use, the recommendation by prominent physicians, and our assurance that its standard will be maintained. Imitations are to be found in some stores and only because of the Castoria that Mr. Fletcher created. But it is not the genuine Castoria that Mr. Fletcher honestly advertised, honestly placed before the public, and from which he honestly expects to receive his reward.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Charles H. Fletcher.

CONSTITUTION
FOR PALESTINE
STIRS ARAB IRE

Organizations Send Protests to British Premier and League Council.

JERUSALEM, Palestine (By the Associated Press).—The publication locally of the re-drafted text of the proposed constitution for the state of Palestine and its municipal councils has been received with signs of indignation on the part of the Arab population without distinction of religion or political creed.

Organizations all over Palestine, as soon as the import of the text became known, began sending strongly worded protests to Premier Lloyd George, to the council of the League of Nations and to the leading members of the British parliament.

The draft confers upon the British high commissioner here the sole power of decision in all matters relating to the management of local affairs, the council being left with a consultative duty only, except in the making of roads and the establishment of hospitals. The Arabs seem to be at a loss to understand the reasons which prompted the British, who hold a mandate in Palestine, to adopt this attitude, which they regard as humiliating.

Mustard Gas To Be Used in Rodent War

LODI, May 18.—Attempts to demonstrate war-time mustard gas as a ground squirrel exterminator on the Marion DeVries ranch, near this city, were given up after it was discovered that the weeds and wheat were too high. F. E. Garlough, of the state biological survey, V. Braghetti and C. D. Cooper, deputy county horticultural commissioners, visited the DeVries ranch, but did not make any attempt to use the dread gas. Garlough announced that it would be demonstrated some time next week at Mather Field.

HIGHWAY BIDS ASKED.
MERCED, May 18.—The board of supervisors has approved of the work to be done in the British colony, running through to Bu-hach. Bids have been ordered advertised and will be opened June 5. The work will cost in the neighborhood of $80,000. Once completed this will be one of the finest stretches of road in the county.

COULD HARDLY STAND AT TIMES

Hips, Back and Legs would Have That Tired Ache

Everett, Washington.—"For several years I have had trouble with the lowest part of my back and my hips and my legs would ache with that tired ache, I could hardly stand on my feet at times. I was always able to do my work although I did not feel good. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and having heard several praise it I decided to try it. I feel first-rate at the present time. It has done wonders for me and I keep it in the house right along. I always recommend it to others who are sick and ailing. J. M. SHERR, 4032 High St., Everett, Washington."

To do any kind of work, or to play for that matter, is next to impossible if you are suffering from some form of female trouble. It may cause your back or your legs to ache, it may make you nervous and irritable. You may be able to keep up and around, but you do not feel good. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for women. It is especially adapted to relieve the cause of the trouble and then these annoying pains, aches and "no good" feelings disappear.

DAY BREAKS OER
BEAUTIFUL
JOAQUIN MILLER ACRES

"Sleep below me lies the valley,
Deep below me lies the town,
Where great sea ships ride and rally
And the world walks up and down."
JOAQUIN MILLER.

AND WHAT the rugged human poet saw throughout each day and lived with, you may see, enjoy and live with.

That irresistible lure of Nature companionizing with all that the brain of man has yet devised to add to the sum of man's happiness, comfort and convenience, all are calling you to Joaquin Miller Acres.

Once see this spot so prodigally favored by the Great Architect and the urge of that call will never leave you.

Joaquin Miller Acres will fast become one of those "home-lands" altogether too rare in an age crazed by commercialism.

Soon the artistic bungalow, studio and quaint chalet—the citadels of contentment and culture—will spring into existence on the Acres.

Will yours be among them?

On this land where lived the Poet of the Sierras is the forest scenery, the bracing air, the verdant valley and "The Hights" known to all the civilized world.

To see, enjoy and be inspired by such incentives to a more ambitious effort, Wealth carries annually thousands of votaries to the shrines of Shakespeare, Burns, the "Lake poets" and others, none of whose genius o'ersteps that of the immortal Joaquin Miller.

Yet within twenty-two minutes' comfortable ride from the heart of bustling Oakland, along a route lined with attractiveness, you can find all that satisfaction and allurements offered at ruinous expense on a far distant continent.

Yet with all its beauty and sentiment, and in the planning for its disposal to those who appreciate with Ruskin "the good, the true and the beautiful," only the utility of the Acres has been considered by the owners.

A full quarter acre is the smallest unit; big enough for exclusiveness, yet conducive to neighborliness. It's easily within the reach of those of even modest income. Why not own one?

To encourage the early settlement of this "Carmel" of the glorious San Francisco Bay district, the price for half-acre begins at six hundred dollars which can be taken care of in the most convenient manner. And a half acre contains about five regular city lots.

Only from Joaquin Miller Acres and looking out to all of the thirty-two points of the compass can you appreciate the many exclusive merits of this homelands.

While nature arranged the setting, the artistic surroundings have been taken into consideration by the Realty Syndicate Company. Their engineers have arranged roads and other necessary improvements after weeks of careful study. Plans and drawings have been made and discarded until the picture is now finished up to your coming. You are to be the artist to put the finishing touches upon this "God's Acres."

Reasonable restrictions surround this property which will guarantee the complete carrying out of the artistic scheme, and with the very easy terms to the purchaser the dream is about to be consummated.

Certainly you will want to see, and think, for yourself. It will be considered a compliment to us if you will phone "Lakeside 1600" and let us arrange to take you to the Acres at your convenience.

Sunday, May 21st, is the day set for the formal opening of Joaquin Miller Acres and you are invited to be present and see for yourself the extensive preparations now complete.

TO REACH JOAQUIN MILLER ACRES, drive out Park Boulevard, turn to the right on County Road. Buses will meet all Park Boulevard cars at the end of the line.

PROFESSOR AND PASTOR DEBATE ON EVOLUTION

2000 Enthusiasts Listen to the Discussion On Deep Question.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 18.—(By The Associated Press.)—Evolution was debated by Dr. Z. P. Metcalf of the science faculty of North Carolina State College and Rev. Dr. W. B. Riley, pastor of the First Baptist church of Minneapolis, today in the assembly hall of the college, which was crowded with enthusiasts.

There was no formal verdict, but each one of the 2000 present acted as his own judge and rendered a decision accordingly.

The subject was: "Resolved, that evolution is a demonstrated fact," with Dr. Metcalf upholding the affirmative and a scientific basis, while Dr. Riley, in debating the negative, spoke extemporaneously.

FOUR QUESTIONS. The debate was an outgrowth of a controversy between the science faculty of the college and ministers conducting services at a Baptist church, one of whom, the Rev. J. C. Masse of Tremont temple, Boston, asserted in a public address that evolution had no foundation in fact and that no person could believe in it and be a Christian.

Dr. Metcalf summed up his appeal in four questions. The questions and answers follow:

Dr. Metcalf—Why do living organisms present themselves in such a marvelous graded series, from protoplasm to man, bacterium to dandelion?

Dr. Riley—"That is the order of God's creation. He began with grass and ended with man."

Dr. Metcalf—Why do the higher living organisms develop the non-useful structures, known as vestiges?

FACTS DENIED. Dr. Riley—"Who said they were non-useful? God may have a use for them that we have not discovered. I still have got my appendix and I am going to keep it. Those other 186 I never did have."

Dr. Metcalf—"Why should individual organisms in their development go through the wasteful processes of forming ancestral structure, merely to have them disappear before the organism is full grown?"

Dr. Riley—"They do not."

Dr. Metcalf—"Why, among the vast array of simple animals and simple plants known to have lived in the coal age, not one flowering plant nor one mammal has ever been found?"

Dr. Riley—"Down there is where God began. And at that I am not convinced that mammals are not the older order of creation. These strata may not be where they were originally put, but may have been shifted to new locations and positions in some cataclysmic upheaval."

Lady Astor Greets Old Servant

"Lord, chile, if it ain't Miss Nancy come back," said Lavinia, the old negro servant, when she met Lady Astor, the former Nancy Langhorne, walking in the garden of her old Virginia home. England's first woman M. P., up to this moment overcome with emotion on seeing her old home again and the scenes of her girlhood, burst into laughter at the seriousness of her trusty old servant.—Copyright, 1922, by Underwood & Underwood.

R. O. T. C. Students Win Commissions

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, May 18.—President Ray Lyman Wilbur will present reserve commissions in the United States army to seventeen members of the Stanford R. O. T. C. unit at the review of the organization that will open the University day celebration next Saturday morning. The commissions will be as second lieutenants in the field artillery reserve corps. The men who will receive them are: R. Ardell, A. F. Allen, E. K. Baum, A. P. Blinn, W. C. Condit, J. W. Coplen, J. J. Easley, E. B. Harper, W. A. B. Hayne, T. M. Jennings, J. E. McMenamin, A. Neuman, A. A. Paterson, P. H. Talbert, A. Thain, H. S. Thompson and J. M. Turk.

RUSS LAWS BAR NEW PARTIES FOR INDEFINITE TIME

Communists Will Keep the Ranks Closed, Except to Regime Supporters.

MOSCOW, May 18.—No new political parties can be legalized in Russia for a number of years and the Communist Party must continue to keep its ranks closed except to those strictly sympathetic with the dictatorship of the proletariat, G. E. Zinovieff told the last session of the All-Russian Communist Party Congress.

Zinovieff is head of the Third Internationale, president of the Petrograd Provincial Soviet, one of Premier Lenin's closest friends and the author of Lenin's biography. He is a fiery, revolutionary crusader and in the Soviet regime virtually has been dictator of Petrograd.

"Our party has the monopoly of legality," he said. "The danger of this monopoly is that a number of people are getting into the party who would go into the petty bourgeois parties if such existed."

"They are not coming into the party with bad intentions, and are honest enough but bring in bourgeois views. They are an active part of the population who like to participate in the economic and political life of the country. We shall surely be the monopolists of the legality of any party in this country for a number of years to come."

M. Zinovieff said it would be difficult to clear out this element of the party but, as the labor class must "do in" the bourgeoisie, the party's difficulties, no matter how great, in restoring Russia, should not permit any unripe measures that would lead to the restoration of the Menshevik or other bourgeois.

Y., to Siberia, delayed his departure from Omaha for the west today until tomorrow in order to take some photographs of Omaha he was unable to get yesterday because of unfavorable weather conditions.

Stanford Abolishes Inter-Class Battle

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, May 18.—No longer will the freshman and sophomore classes at Stanford face each other in the annual spring baseball fight. After many attacks on the traditional class struggle during the past year the executive committee of the associated students last night voted to abolish the fray altogether. President Ray Lyman Wilbur and Dean of Men George Culver have both been against the affair. President Wilbur wrote a letter to the committee last week voicing his disapproval of the fight. The committee asked the opinion of Skull and Bones, honorary athletic society, on the matter and that organization recommended that the fight be abolished. Efforts are now being made to find some substitute for the class encounter.

Opposition against the fight was voiced last year when several students were hurt in preliminary fighting before the battle. Rules were made which confined the fight to the baseball field, but it was maintained that there were still many objectionable features to the battle.

Rosewood is a commercial term used to describe dark-colored woods of many distinct varieties of trees.

Oakland Veteran Has Napoleon Medal

John T. Edwards, El Vernon apartments, a member of American Legion Post No. 6, is the possessor of one of the rare medals awarded by Napoleon to a few of his old campaigners prior to his departure to St. Helena. Edwards secured the medal while billeted in the village of Alsace, just previous to the Chateau Thierry action, with the Thirty-second Division. It was obtained from the son of the original owner.

Thomas A. Keogh, a San Francisco attorney, also possesses one of these medals.

SULPHUR SOOTHES UGLY ITCHING SKIN

The First Application Makes Skin Cool and Comfortable

If you are suffering from eczema or some other torturing, embarrassing skin trouble you may quickly be rid of it by using Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist.

This sulphur preparation, because of its germ destroying properties, seldom fails to quickly subdue itching, even of fiery eczema. The first application makes the skin cool and comfortable. Rash and blotches are healed right up. Rowles Mentho-Sulphur is applied like any pleasant cold cream and is perfectly harmless. You can obtain a small jar from any good druggist.—Advertisement.

DAUGHERTY HELD NOT EFFICIENT

YONKERS, N. Y., May 18.—The "worst blunder" that President Harding has made was the appointment of Harry M. Daugherty as attorney general, Samuel Untermyer, counsel of the Lookwood legislative committee, declared in an address here last night, criticizing the administration for what he termed its "inefficiency in going after 'the big criminals'—trusts and war contract profiteers."

"He is hopelessly unfitted by training and temperament for that great office, which is in many respects the most important, as it is the most powerful in the government next to that of the president," Mr. Untermyer declared. "It particularly requires a great lawyer, a trained executive and a man free from political contact or environment."

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

Soap should be used very carefully. If you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps are prepared with harsh alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for ready use is Multisilf coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Multisilf in a cup of glass with a little warm water is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and a lustrous, healthy, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisilf coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy; it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Multisilf.—Advertisement.

Needed at Dances and the Sea Shore

(Aids to Beauty) Here is a home treatment for removing hairs that is quick, painless and inexpensive. With some powdered delatone and water make enough paste to thickly cover the objectionable hairs, apply and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be left soft, clear and hairless. This treatment will not mar the skin, but cause a disappointment, be careful to get real delatone. Mix fresh as wanted.—Advertisement.

PINCHOT VICTORY GIVES SHOCK TO PENN. LEADERS

Returns Nearly Complete Give Him Lead of 6800 Over Alter.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEADERS WIRE TO TRIBUNE. PHILADELPHIA, May 18.—Returns from 7592 districts out of 7924 in the state gave Pinchot 49,353 and Alter 49,111; a majority of 6832 for Pinchot.

By J. BART CAMPBELL, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

PHILADELPHIA, May 18.—Stunned by the most smashing blow that has been dealt machine politics in Pennsylvania in years, the old line Penrose leaders of the Penn. state, recently surveyed today the wreckage of their once powerful organization and the unpleasant prospect—for them—of Gifford Pinchot, former personal secretary and ally of the late Theodore Roosevelt, sitting at the head of the state government with all of its perquisites of power and patronage at his command.

In capturing the Republican gubernatorial nomination, Pinchot is believed by some of the shrewdest lieutenants the late Boies Penrose had, to have become overnight a formidable presidential possibility and to have become an important factor in national politics whom the "old guard" Republican leaders must consider henceforth.

The Republican state committee will meet in a few weeks to name a successor to Penrose as the Republican national committeeman from Pennsylvania and it is generally conceded that Pinchot, whom some of the old Penrose leaders are already seeking to placate, will be in a position greatly to influence the choice of Pennsylvania's next representative in the national councils of the Republican party.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour, Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion.

Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried pepsin, pancreatin, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble. In some cases do not even give relief.

Just before giving up hope and declaring you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little Bismarck Magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate or milk, but the pure Bismarck Magnesia which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that provided you take a little Bismarck Magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to the stomach. And the continued use of the Bismarck Magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are no symptoms of acid indigestion.—Advertisement.

NATION'S MOTOR DRIVERS GATHER

CHICAGO, May 18.—Representatives of 243 automobile clubs and more than 200,000 motorists from various states met here yesterday to organize a national association to protect the interests of motor car owners throughout the country. The organization expects to check reckless driving, create uniform driving regulations, effect uniformity of automobile legislation, obtain more just taxation, relieve congestion in the larger cities and sponsor other movements.

A committee, consisting of representatives from New York, Illinois, Iowa, Colorado and California, was named to affect a permanent organization.

Get Your Free

$1.00 PACKAGE OF GENUINE YEAST VITAMINE TABLETS from your druggist today.

If you are thin and emaciated and wish something to help you put on flesh and increase your weight, Yeast Vitamine Tablets should be used in connection with a good diet. With organic iron from both food and Vitamines are absolutely useless, as your body cannot change food into living cells and tissue unless you have plenty of organic iron in your blood. Organic iron takes up oxygen from your lungs. This oxygenated organic iron unites with your digested food as it is absorbed into your blood, so that it unites with coal or wood, and by so doing it creates tremendous power and energy. Without organic iron in your blood your food merely passes thru your body without doing you any good.

Arrangements have been made with the druggists of this city to give every reader of this paper a large $1.00 package of Genuine Yeast Vitamine Tablets absolutely free with every purchase of a bottle of Nuxated Iron.

Nervous Stomach Causes Gas

Gas in the stomach and bowels doesn't always result from dyspepsia, improper diet or the fermentation of food. In most cases it is due to a highly sensitive condition of the stomach nerves.

To get rid of the trouble, you must build up and strengthen these weak, irritated nerves of the stomach. Taking artificial digesters such as papain or bismuth, only makes the stomach weaker, however. It is like using dynamite to deaden a pain—the relief given is deceptive and harmful.

Baermann's Gas Tablets act directly upon the affected nerves and gradually assist in restoring the stomach to its normal healthy state. Gas and bloating will quickly disappear, and you will no longer be bothered with pain around your heart, indigestion, shortness of breath, gnawing at the pit of the stomach, distress after eating, due to gas. Ask for Baermann's Gas Tablets in the famous yellow packages. Price one dollar. Sold by the Owl Drug Company, and all reliable druggists. J. Baermann, Chemist, San Francisco.—Advertisement.

FOES OF SOVIET RALLY UNDER WRANGEL FLAG

Organization Is Planned for the Overthrow of Russ Rulers.

PRAGUE, May 17.—Progress toward a union of the Russian anti-Bolshevik forces abroad around the personality of General Wrangel, formerly commander of the White Russian armies in the Crimea, is reported here as a result of conferences held in Belgrade. The difficulties in the way are said to be great but Vladimir Shulgin, a Russian editor formerly of Kiev, says that Wrangel's influence has gradually drawn together the Russians in Constantinople and Sofia, has gained ground in Belgrade and now is about to win the support of those Russians in Paris whose spokesman is the philosopher, M. Kartashev, president of the Russian National Council in Paris.

That would leave the Russians divided into two main groups—the Wrangel forces and the Social Revolutionists, with whom Professor Paul Milukoff is co-operating. About 15,000 Russian soldiers, mostly officers, have continued to remain loyal to Wrangel since they were driven out of the Crimea and some thousands of them are performing frontier guard or gendarmerie service in Yugoslavia where their discipline has continued. In Bulgaria these Russians are subject to their own authority and the sentences of their court-martials are carried out without reference to the laws of Bulgaria. The Wrangel forces actually are better armed than the Bulgarians and recently have received arms and munitions from Allied sources abroad. Bulgarians have too small a force under the colors now to be able to watch their frontiers effectively.

Civic League Women Voters May Raise Dues

By EDNA B. KINARD.
When the California Civic League of Women Voters, Northern section, meets in annual convention tomorrow, Mrs. Frank G. Law, retiring president, will recommend a constitutional amendment which will increase the per capita dues to 50 cents a year. Mrs. Law's contention will be that no organization may flourish or properly function without substantial financial support. The recommendation is designed to adequately finance the obligations of the northern section to itself, the state and the national body. Moreover, it will take care of a special fund which will be used in sending representatives to the annual convention of the National League of Women Voters. According to the scheme which Mrs. Law will offer, the 50 cents will be divided as follows: Ten cents, northern section; 10 cents, State League; 10 cents, National League; 20 cents, delegates' fund.

Oakland Center, California Civic League of Women Voters, will be hostess to the annual meeting tomorrow. The conference will be held at 10:30 a. m. in the Ahmanson Temple, Thirteenth and Harrison streets. The address of welcome will be made by Mrs. Frank H. Beron. Election officers will follow the annual reports of the officers and chairman of the following standing committees: Legislation, education, speakers' bureau, food supply, public relations, public welfare, efficiency in government.

The report of the constitution revision committee will be heard immediately following the luncheon adjournment. A statement of the story of the National convention held last month in Baltimore will be told by Mrs. Law, Mrs. William Palmer Lucas, regional director from California, and Mrs. E. J. Mott, all of whom were delegates from this state. Mrs. Frederick Faulkner of Oakland has been named for the presidency of the San Francisco Bay branch of the American Association of University Women. Mrs. Faulkner, who is a graduate of Stanford University, has for several years been prominently identified with the activities of the bay branch, serving with succeeding boards of directors. She is one of the best known newspaper women in California and is associated with the activities of the bay branch, serving with succeeding boards of directors. She is one of the best known newspaper women in California and is associated with the activities of the bay branch, serving with succeeding boards of directors. She is one of the best known newspaper women in California and is associated with the activities of the bay branch, serving with succeeding boards of directors.

The Pioneer Women of Oakland will meet tomorrow in Wigwam Hall, Pacific building, business and pleasure making equal claims upon the hour. Mrs. Sarah J. Farwell, president, will preside as chairman. The official pins which have been adopted by the pioneer women are now ready for distribution among the members. The design shows an oak tree under which is the motto—"The Best for Oakland."

The story of the Petaluma convention of Second District, California Congress of Mothers, will be told tomorrow before the social meeting of Melrose Heights Parent Teacher Association. The mothers will assemble at 2:15 p. m. in the school auditorium. Mrs. A. B. Roy, president, will preside as chairman.

New Zealand Bishop Freed of Sedition

AUCKLAND, N. Z., May 18.—Monsignor Liston, Catholic bishop of Auckland, was acquitted yesterday of a charge of making seditious utterances. The jury decided that Monsignor Liston had been guilty of gross indiscretion in using words capable of misconception and calculated to offend a large number of New Zealanders.

A despatch from Wellington in March said Bishop Liston was charged with having denounced the British troops in Ireland as "foreign troops." At the time of his speech he was glorifying the Easter rebellion in Ireland and is said to have declared that the Irish were martyrs and "proud to die for their country, murdered by foreign troops."

Alameda Scouts Of Sea Plan Dance

ALAMEDA, May 17.—The Alameda Sea Scouts will be hosts at a dance Saturday, May 27, at the Washington school auditorium. The Washington School Mothers' Club is sponsoring the affair. The following shipping board members will be present: J. N. Eschen, Carl Suron, A. C. Benton, Edward Albert, pilot, and P. B. Morehouse, skipper. The proceeds will go to buying paint, rope and other nautical supplies and to repairing the boats and boathouse of the Sea Scouts.

Improvement Bonds Bring High Premium

PITTSBURG, May 18.—Public improvement bonds of $25,000 were awarded last night by the board of trustees to Cyrus Pierce & Co. of San Francisco, which offered the highest premium of five bidders. The successful bidder's premium was $1837. Other bidders and premiums offered were E. H. Keuffor, Richmond, $530; Mercantile Trust Company of San Francisco, $1050; Anglo, Paris & London Bank, $822; and Crescent & Smith, $577. The bonds are a part of an issue voted a year ago by the town for improvement of streets and other projects.

HEALTH LEAGUE SEEKS TO DEFEAT CHIROPRACTIC

Yosemite Meeting Discusses Plan to Initiate At Polls.

YOSEMITE, May 18.—The League for the Conservation of Public Health had charge yesterday of the general sessions of the State Medical Society at Yosemite Lodge. Most of the meeting was devoted to plans for the defeating of chiropractic and osteopathic initiative measures at the next election. Walter M. Dickey, secretary of the state board of health, reported that his records showed that thousands of lives were being saved annually by preventive measures against typhoid, tuberculosis and other diseases which formerly claimed many victims. He paid a high compliment to Southern California for taking such good care of its tuberculosis cases and explained that 17 percent of tuberculosis deaths there were persons who had resided in the state less than one year. Other speakers were: John D. Fredericks, president Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and Dr. Percy T. McCann, of Los Angeles. John A. O'Connell, secretary of the San Francisco Labor Council, pledged union labor's aid to defeat measures opposed by the league for the conservation of public health saying that labor believed in well trained workers whether in medicine or industry.

Volcanic Dust Fills Air in Virgin Islands

ST. THOMAS (Virgin Island), May 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—For some days past an unusual atmospheric phenomenon has been observed here and on other of the West India islands. The air has been dense and hazy, a heavy, dusty mist, apparently consisting of very light particles of matter falling continuously. The visibility has been low. The phenomenon is supposed here to be of volcanic origin, but all of the volcanoes in the West Indies are reported quiet.

Principals Arrested in Marriage Plot

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., May 18.—Jack Cozby, held here on a charge of concealing a criminal conspiracy in connection with the disappearance of Miss Opal Rexroat, Ardmore, Okla. heiress, today waived extradition and is being taken to Ardmore by a deputy sheriff. J. T. Rexroat, father of the girl, asserts that he believes his daughter was kidnapped and forced to marry Ludie E. Kinney by a gang of conspirators, who sought to get possession of her $100,000 estate. The couple were reported arrested last night at Houston. According to the police, Cozby had on his person when arrested, mortgages signed by Miss Rexroat totaling $27,500.

Waterford to Get Pythians' Home

CHICO, May 18.—Waterford, in Stanislaus county, probably will be the site for the construction of the proposed Knights of Pythias home for incapacitated. Delegates to the fifty-third annual convention of the grand lodge here accepted the report and recommendations of the committee, placing Waterford ahead of ten other sites considered. The Waterford site comprises 105½ acres and is close to a water supply and schools and churches. The committee reported it is planned to spend $200,000 in improvement of the property and in buildings.

THE SCIENTIFICALLY BUILT WATCH

The Waltham Colonial Series No. 1420 Catalog No. 111, Ruled Figure Dial $55.00

A Beautiful Watch

WE all love beauty. A beautiful thing satisfies us—our mind, our eyes, our sense of perfection.

And that is just what this Waltham Colonial Series No. 1420 Watch gives us as we look at it—a sense of perfection.

The graceful, slim case. The chaste design of the bow and the distinction of the raised figure dial—all appealing, seductive, satisfying.

But beauty in a Waltham Watch goes deeper than what you see and touch; it reaches in every tiny part of the famed movement—even to that which you do not see—hidden away to do its life-long work, but made with precious care.

The Waltham Colonial Series No. 1420 is worth looking at, but it is supremely worth owning. It is a watch of which any man can say—"I own a beautiful watch, dependable, accurate and lasting."

Ask your jeweler to show it to you. He knows Waltham Watches.

Bridge Teas And Luncheons For Guests

Several smart affairs were given this afternoon on both sides of the bay. Mrs. J. George Moore of Berkeley was hostess at luncheon and bridge at her home, a group of close friends sharing her hospitality. Over the bay Mrs. Irving Lundborg had guests for luncheon and bridge at the Cliff, honoring Mrs. Kendall Morgan. Mrs. Morgan is visiting in Burlingame from her home in Detroit. At her new home in Lakeside Highland Mrs. Charles Lee Tilden Jr. is entertaining at tea for Miss Elizabeth Allard, and her cousin, Miss Elise Roeder, both of whom are brides-elect of this spring.

One of the social affairs planned for Saturday is the bridge luncheon which Mrs. Meredith Evans Young and Miss Adeline Keller are to give in honor of Mrs. Russell Patterson King, who before her marriage a week ago was Miss Bess Allen, and for the Misses Myrtle Becker and Marion Hawkinson, two brides-elects who have been much feted since the announcement of their engagements. Miss Becker, who is the fiancée of Kirby Parcells West, is to be a June bride, while Miss Hawkinson, who is to marry Arthur Herndon of San Francisco, will not be married until the autumn. About two score of the maids and younger married set from around the East-bay will attend the luncheon, which will be given at the Fairmont hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Gardner of Piedmont are spending a few days in Los Angeles, guests at the Ambassador. Mr. and Mrs. Gardner have been the center of much entertainment since their arrival and have also been regular attendants at the night horse show which was held at the Ambassador arena last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert F. Graham of Piedmont are registered at the Ambassador hotel, Los Angeles, where they will spend the next few weeks.

MAY PARTY TO BE GIVEN. Saturday, May 27, Miss Gladys L. Girard will be hostess at a May party honoring Miss Bernice Errington and Mrs. Frank Cavanaugh. Mrs. Howard D. Leese and Mrs. Russell S. Ormsby will assist in receiving.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Val Arntzen of Telegraph avenue, Berkeley, was the scene of a pretty affair Sunday when the hosts entertained with a miscellaneous shower for Miss Regina Salmina, fiancée of Kenneth Arntzen. Miss Salmina is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Salmina, residents of St. Helena, and will receive her degree this year from the University of California. July 23 is the date for the wedding of the couple, the ceremony to take place in St. Helena.

The guests Sunday evening were: Messrs. and Mesdames Byron Rutley, Harold Rutley, William Keane, Herman Halper, Wade Williams, Mrs. Nellie Phillips, Miss Antonette Morosoli, Miss Gertrude Rutley, Marshall Lovey, Norman Arntzen, Harold Hut. CARDS OUT FOR TEAS. Cards have been received for two teas at which Miss Vera Bernhard will preside as hostess next week. The first will be Monday afternoon at the Palace with Miss Laura Miller, Mrs. Harold Jean Havro and Mrs. William Stafford Gibbs sharing the honors.

The day following Miss Bernhard will give a similar affair, a trio of brides-elect to share honors being Miss Lorene Klune, Miss Elizabeth Allard and Miss Marian Kegan. About three score of guests have been bidden.

The graduation of Miss Irene May from the University of California was celebrated by a number of her friends at a tea given in her honor Wednesday by Mrs. Walter Barusch at Aladdin's Studio Tiffin, San Francisco.

Guests who paid honor to Miss May at the tea included members of the Theta Upsilon sorority. They were Lucille Czarnoski, Phoebe Davis, Monica Dietrich and Anne Jacobson.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Secretary Denby will accompany the naval academy class of 1881 to Japan "at the request and with the approval of the president," he said today, explaining the nature of the trip, the naval transport Henderson will begin from Hampton Roads next Saturday.

While it is true, Denby said, that members of the class and the families of some of them will make the trip, it is not being made especially for their accommodation. The class is going at the invitation of the Japanese Admiral Urua, classmate.

Replying to a criticism concerning the use of fuel for this purpose when the navy's fuel allowance is already low, Denby said: "Thirty rods of fuel would go on whether the members of the class of '81 were on board or not."

Remember, also that Bowman's conduct a quick service mail order department in their effort to get the goods shipped on the first returning train or stage.

A FINE IMPORTED FACE POWDER FOR 50c

Have you ever tried our imported French Face Powder which we sell in a large size box for 50c. This powder comes from France in bulk in large quantities. It is even a better grade of powder than many other kinds which are sold in Europe, selling boxed in large quantities in America at twice the price or more. If you are interested in real quality and do not care particularly about foreign labels and fancy packages, you will be pleased with this powder. It comes in four shades and a great many of our customers have been using it steadily for years, and are very enthusiastic about it. Ask for Precoda Powder.

WATERMAN FOUNTAIN PEN AGENCY

THURSDAY, MAY 18, 1922. NO. 21

SOME INTERESTING REDUCTIONS THAT HAVE BEEN MADE RECENTLY

In Line with Our Policy of "Lowest Prices Always at Bowman's"

Why Not Select a Fountain Pen?

Can you imagine any gift, for a graduate, more appropriate than a good fountain pen or an attractive patent pencil?

We carry complete stocks of Waterman, Wahl and Swan fountain pens, also equally complete assortments of Ever-sharp, Sheaffer, Lister and Pal pencils.

For example, the Sheaffer pencil draws the lead in as well as forces it out. This advantage protects the point against breakage.

The Wahl fountain pen has a point made of iridium, one of the hardest, most durable metals known. As a consequence this pen is popular for its remarkable lasting qualities under hard usage.

The Pal pencil is the latest addition to our line and plunges into the latest addition to our line with many new patented improvements.

Of course Waterman fountain pens are standard, as are also Ever-sharp pencils.

All of these articles can be furnished in attractive gift boxes containing either one or two articles, the favorite combination being a pen and pencil in designs to match set side by side in a combination box.

REAL OLD-FASHIONED LIVER PILLS

The Genuine Article

You would be surprised at the great quantity of old-fashioned Liver Pills we sell. If it were possible to check up on each individual article of old-fashioned Liver Pills during the past 45 years, we would probably find that we have sold more old-fashioned Liver Pills than of any other article. Our stores have been selling these old-fashioned pills constantly ever since Bowman's started, and even way back in the early 70's they were called old-fashioned Liver Pills.

We put them up just the same as they were put up by our grandfathers, still using the wooden bottles with exactly the same ingredients that made them popular nearly two generations ago. 25c a bottle.

Built for "rough-and-tumble" play

Nothing frail or weak-kneed about Kute Kuts—or the kiddies who wear them. These trim little play-suits are wear-suits first. We make them so! For we use only sturdy, closely woven materials. All strain points are reinforced for double duty. All seams are stoutly sewed. "Every stitch is guaranteed." The shiny metal buttons are on "for keeps." And so is everything else.

Kute Kuts are made so well, so lasting, that your youngsters are more apt to outgrow them than outwear them. Strong enough to stand the hardest kind of "rough-and-tumble" play—yet smart and "dressy" enough for the best of company. That's Kute Kuts! And they cost less than you'd expect—ask your dealer.

CENTRAL AMERICA RICHES TOLD BY CHARLES BUTTERS

Mining Man Back From Long Trip Says U. S. Capital Is Needed.

Honduras, Nicaragua and Salvador present unlimited opportunity for American capital, according to Charles Butters, the mining man who is at his home in Oakland today, following his return yesterday from a five months' survey of Central America.

Butters, who is a large mining operator in Mexico, Central and South America, spent three and a half months on mule back examining mining properties in Honduras, Nicaragua and Salvador and brought back to this country an account of the wonderful opportunities and vast resources of those countries.

Using 1800 oxen Butters freight-

ASK THE TRIBUNE Bureau of Information

"Who was the author of 'Women I Have Met'?"

We do not find this book listed in any book catalogue. If the book you refer to is "Some Women I Have Known," the author in question is J. M. H. Schwartz, whose pen name is Martin E. Maartens.

"How do you make Denver cream pie?"

The recipe for Denver cream pie is as follows:

Three-quarter cup sugar, half cup flour. Mix these two together dry. Yolks of two eggs, beaten and added to one pint of sweet milk. Place in double boiler and gradually add the flour and sugar. Add a pinch of salt and a piece of butter the size of a walnut. One teaspoonful vanilla. This makes one pie. Beat the whites of the eggs and mix with two tablespoons of sugar and spread on the top of the pie. Brown slightly in the oven. Ramanas sliced and added to this above custard. He declared that he was decided-ly pleased and impressed over the favorable change in the attitude of these countries to the United States. The governments he declared will welcome American business and will grant fifty-year leases on mineral projects.

OIL SOUGHT.

"These three countries," said Butters, "are being carefully prospected for oil. British and American experts have recently arrived and it is expected that large fields will be discovered and developed. In Costa Rica an abundance of natural gas has been tapped but as yet no oil of any consequence."

"Since the war the German influence in Central America has waned to almost nothing. It is being replaced by American and other European influences and if America showed the proper amount of activity this country could easily predominate."

Butters declared that the resources of these countries are tremendous and he expressed regret at the fact that American business men are so slow to seize the opportunities which lie at their very doors.

From the point of view of Pacific coast business men, Central America, he said, had been moved nearer by half the former distance by the reason of the new fast boats that are now plying up and down the coast.

FARM CHANCES.

"In addition to the mineral opportunities there are fine chances to develop agriculture in these three countries," said Butters. "There is no finer quality of tobacco raised in the world than in the Jalapa district in Nicaragua. In Salvador the best quality of pineapple is raised, but the industry is in its infancy here. Sugar and fruits are awaiting exploitation."

"American capital could and should do wonders in these countries. The administration and the people themselves are in the friendliest frame of mind towards America. It will be a great pity if we do not take advantage of it."

"I met President Chamorro of Nicaragua, President Gutierrez of Honduras and President Melendez of Salvador. All three of them expressed a hope that the United States would see fit to invest in their countries. They are anxious to co-operate in development."

BROOKLYN PARLOR WILL HOLD SHOW

New songs, new jokes and new costumes will be features of the minstrel show to be offered again by Brooklyn Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West tomorrow night in Oakland Auditorium.

W. B. White, past president of the organization and district deputy grand president of the order, will act as interlocutor. William de Blois and Ralph Webster will be "extreme ends." The other end men are Harry Manderbach and Guy Thorne, Walter Feeley and B. H. Dowd.

The soloists for the show are Herb Wieland, E. G. Albers, Charles Nesmith and H. E. Townsend.

Following the show there will be a dance. Louie Larue will act as floor manager.

Among those who are working to make the show a success are Billy Dienes, president of Brooklyn parlor M. H. Glaze, secretary, and P. C. Merritt, grand historiographer.

Inform Yourself About These New Uses for Kingsford's Corn Starch—Very Interesting to Every Housewife

If your recipe calls for four eggs to one quart of milk, use three eggs, and for the egg omitted use half tablespoonful Kingsford's Corn Starch.

It is not necessary to purchase both a bread and a pastry flour. By using one-fourth cup of Kingsford's Corn Starch to three-fourth cup of any good flour the percentage of gluten is decreased and the starch content increased so that home prepared flour will make a lighter and finer grained cake.

For smoother, glossier gravies and sauces use a dessertspoonful of Kingsford's instead of a tablespoonful of wheat flour.

For lighter, flakier biscuits, pie crusts and muffins, make your pastry flour with $\frac{1}{4}$ cup of Kingsford's and $\frac{3}{4}$ cup wheat flour.

FREE: Ask your grocer or write Johnson-Locke Mercantile Co., 1 Drumm St., San Francisco, for folder of the new Kingsford Corn Starch recipes

This is No. 3 of a series of Rinso endorsements from the leading washing machine manufacturers of this country

Why the makers of the well-known Laun-Dry-Ette recommend Rinso

THE LAUNDRYETTE MANUFACTURING CO.
1120 EAST 152ND STREET
CLEVELAND

LAUN-DRY-ETTE

Lever Bros. Co.,
Cambridge, Mass.

Gentlemen:

Our washing experts have found Rinso so satisfactory that we are glad to recommend its use in the Laun-Dry-Ette.

A soap that does not dissolve completely often makes greasy deposits on the clothes. We found no little soapy particles floating around in the water in our tests with Rinso as we did with some of the other soaps.

Rinso dissolves to the last grain in boiling water, making a solution of even strength. This solution gives a quick, heavy suds that break down the dirt. This quality in a soap is appreciated by every washing machine manufacturer, for it prepares the way for the efficient operation of the machine.

Twelve minutes was the average operating period with Rinso and not a single article had to be hand-rubbed.

Our analysis of Rinso shows that it contains nothing harmful to the Laun-Dry-Ette. This indicated, of course, that it would not injure any of the pieces washed with it. Our practical washing tests proved this to our complete satisfaction.

Very truly yours,
THE LAUNDRYETTE MANUFACTURING COMPANY

J. G. Larimer
President

However your washing is done

The same qualities that make Rinso an ideal soap in any washing machine make it the best soap you can use whatever way you do the family wash.

NOTE: In hard water it takes from $\frac{1}{4}$ to 1 package (regular size) of Rinso to a tub to make good suds. In very hard water you will need from $\frac{1}{2}$ to 2 packages to a tub to get the big lasting suds that loosen all the dirt.

LONG before the first Laun-Dry-Ette was put on the market seven years ago the manufacturers of this famous machine started making soap tests.

They knew that their machine could be mechanically perfect—yet not give perfect satisfaction if the wrong kind of soaps were used.

Today after months of searching tests with many soaps they are recommending Rinso in the Laun-Dry-Ette.

Tests made by other great manufacturers

The same exhaustive tests have been made by the leading washing machine makers throughout the country. All are endorsing Rinso without qualification.

Rinso is made of pure cleansing materials so perfectly balanced that it is taking the place of bar soap at every step of the family wash.

When you put your clothes to soak
Dissolve Rinso in boiling water—use enough to get big lasting suds. Then, let your clothes soak an hour or more—overnight if you like—(colored clothes only half an hour). Soaking in big, lasting lukewarm Rinso suds softens the dirt.

In any washing machine
Use enough Rinso solution to make a heavy suds. Operate your machine from 10 to 15 minutes. Rinso is the ideal soap for machine washing.

If you boil
Boiling isn't necessary, but if you like to boil your white cottons, pour enough Rinso solution in the boiler to give you the suds you like.

CONDEMNATION OF REDWOODS IS NOT NECESSARY

City Attorney Informs Council Subdivision of Tract Can Be Prevented.

The city council this morning received an opinion from the city attorney that condemnation of the redwoods is not necessary, received notice that the tract company will pay its portion of Telegraph avenue when the city paves the remainder of the street, and heard a protest from Judge Vernon Heights delegation against a proposed apartment house in their residence zone. The delegation was headed by Victor H. Metcalf, former secretary of the city. The matter was laid over one week till the council visits Vernon Terrace.

The letter from the city attorney concerning the redwoods was in reply to pleas from the City League of Improvement, Associations, to condemn the redwoods in the hills before the Havens interests subdivide the tract.

CAN STOP SUB-DIVISION.
The city attorney stated he is already authorized to put the matter up to the people for a bond election at the August 22 primaries. He showed that the Havens interests cannot subdivide without the map being approved by the city planning commission, and without the streets being approved by the street department. The city, he showed, cannot stop any subdivision without going to the trouble of condemnation proceedings.

"I doubt if it would be proper for the council to do anything before the people have a chance to vote on the subject," he concluded. "Condemnation is not necessary. The matter can be left as it is until election."

ACCEPT INVITATION.
The Council accepted the invitation to attend the City League celebration at Sacramento and will journey to that city next Wednesday.

The delegation from Vernon Heights, including many prominent property owners, pleaded that the present zone be kept intact. The Council's city planning commission had approved the intrusion of the apartment house into the zone, on the ground that an apartment is just across the street and no damage would be done; but the Vernon property owners insisted that their zone be held inviolate.

"The property is depreciating in the fear that more apartments are coming," said Metcalf. "We urge that you do not change your established zones without due consideration." The Council promised to make a study of the whole question on the ground before final decision.

Fire Fighters to Clash on Diamond

ALAMEDA, May 18.—The members of the Alameda fire department are preparing to show the visiting Oakland fire fighters some new stunts in routing for the home team Sunday when the two aggregations of ball tossers get together in the big Christmas festival benefit game at Lincoln park Sunday.

The proceeds of the game are to be divided between the two fire departments and used for the purchase of tools and supplies for the manufacture of toys for the children of the two cities. These are distributed at the big Christmas trees held each year.

Alameda Parlor No. 47, Native Sons, made the first donation to the local fire department Christmas fund last night, when it voted $25. This is to be used in the Christmas fund.

Last Tribute Is Paid Mrs. Hart

ALAMEDA, May 18.—Funeral services for Mrs. Emily J. Hart, mother-in-law of R. E. Roemer, former city clerk, were held from the G. W. Murphy chapel, this afternoon. Mrs. Hart died suddenly Tuesday night.

Mrs. Hart was a native of Oakland. She is survived by six children, Mrs. Irene Rossbach, Mrs. Estelle Beaudry, Robert, Milton, Emmet H. and Florence Hart.

Medallist of U. C. Worked His Way Through College

BERKELEY, May 18.—Waldo Westwater, son of an old university employee of the U. C. Observatory at Mount Hamilton, who was singled out for honors as the medallist of yesterday's graduation class at the university, was accorded added distinction with the announcement that he had worked his own way through college.

Dr. Barrows in honoring the medallist classed him as the "son of a faithful old employee of the university."

Westwater entered the university from College Park Academy of San Jose during the period that the student army training corps was a part of the state institution. Throughout his college career he has made a remarkable scholastic record, 75 per cent of his work being of first class grade. His major study has been in chemistry, and he graduated with highest honors in the department of chemistry receiving the degree of Bachelor of Science.

For three years he held the Currier M. Jones scholarship which was founded by the will of Mrs. Currier M. Jones. For the year 1921-22 he was the holder of the Bruce Howard Memorial Scholarship which was established for the benefit of students in chemistry by Mrs. Bruce Howard, of Oakland, in memory of her son.

Westwater was recently elected to the California Alpha chapter of the Phi Kappa Phi, the highest scholastic honor society. He is also a member of Alpha Chi Sigma and Phi Lambda Upsilon, chemistry honor societies.

TEACHER, 33, SAID TO HAVE MARRIED SCHOLAR OF 16

Dismissed Instructor of Lodi and Youth Cannot Be Bound.

STOCKTON, May 18.—Following their disappearance sometime last night, search was in progress today for Miss Mary Stamp, 33 years old, recently dismissed Lodi grammar school teacher, and John Fry, 18 years old, who rumor has linked her name in secret marriage. It was learned today that the boy was wanted by County Probation Officer Norwood for certification to juvenile court.

The couple are thought to have gone to Oakland or San Francisco, while some believe that Los Angeles is their destination. According to one witness, the couple were seen to board a stage last night for Stockton.

Following her dismissal from the teaching corps at Lodi several days ago, Miss Stamp announced that she was going to Los Angeles, presumably to enter the movies. This morning neither the dismissed teacher nor the boy could be located. They were hand-baggage according to witnesses, but the teacher left a suitcase in her room.

Today young Fry's father told newspaper men that the boy yesterday said his mother had married him and Miss Stamp were married. "You can't keep up apart," he shouted according to his father. "I'll go through hell for you."

The couple refused to confirm or deny the report that they had been secretly married. They were both recently absent from Lodi for two days.

Following their disappearance, followed their evident infatuation, which was largely responsible for Miss Stamp's losing her position in the Lodi school.

Today the mother appealed to the school board, asking if something could not be done to keep them apart. At a meeting Saturday the board declared her position vacant and ordered her salary paid to the end of their year, which is next month. Her successor was named.

Fry is large for his age and could easily pass for twenty.

Bohemian Club Celebrates Its Half Century

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—The Bohemian club of San Francisco celebrated its half-century birthday last night. The guests of honor were 25 members, who were seated at a table between the 73 and '52, known as "The Old Guard that never surrenders."

Two of the 25 attended the second birthday of the club, but not one of them was present at the first anniversary.

The Bohemian Club was founded by old-time San Francisco newspaper writers. Membership was limited to these, but associate memberships were extended to actors, authors, poets, painters, and others who had an appreciation of the fine arts. A rule, which was not taken seriously, however, stipulated originally that newspaper publishers could not become members, on account of the fact that they were competitors of the club.

The present membership of the club embraces many such "plutocrats," however.

Last night's festivities consisted of a banquet and a concert by the "little symphony," directed by Alexander Szalvsky.

MAYOR AND S. F. LEADERS PAINT CITY BUILDING

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—Mayor James Rolph Jr. and Joseph J. Tynan, general manager of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation, today led a party of fifty executives of the paint industry yesterday, and set to work in painting the Administration Building in the Civic Center, which will serve as headquarters for the Imperial Council of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Mystic Shrine next month.

The painting of the building is part of the "Save the Surface" campaign which is now in full swing, and the purpose of which is to "brighten up" San Francisco, which has been the thousands of Shrine delegates arrive.

Business Magnates Quit Work to Aid $24 Damage Suit

Heads of half a dozen large business enterprises about the bay knocked off work today to dispute in court as to whether James Thompson, president of the Seaboard National Bank of San Francisco, should pay C. W. Hunt, head of the local commission firm of Hunt, Hatch & Co., $24,435 damages which the $700,000 sedan is alleged to have inflicted upon Hunt's $3000 touring car in a collision.

Tyson, through his attorney, Stanley William Kehoe, opened the case to the Superior Court, where it was heard today by Superior Judge Harris. Judgment had been rendered against Tyson by Justice of the Peace Harry W. Culver.

The accident occurred at Highland and Pala avenues, Piedmont, when the car driven by Tyson, on his way to the Claremont Country Club golf links, collided with that driven by J. P. Hunt, son of the commission merchant, who was entertaining a group of officers from a British merchant ship.

Among the witnesses today were Thomas P. Whitehead, head of a San Francisco wrecking and rebuilding company, and Fred E. Bain, who resides on Highland avenue, near the scene of the accident. Hunt is represented by H. L. Breed of the firm of Breed & Burpee.

ANGVIL BOOMS CITY OF OAKLAND

Oakland's fame is being proclaimed throughout Europe by a club of artists and writers, representative in the person of Oliver P. Angvik, who recently left this city on a tour of the Eastern States, Canada and the continent of Europe. Angvik is at present at Christiania, Norway, and writes from there as follows:

"I am acting as a missionary for Oakland and have been proclaiming her virtues throughout the States and over here. I am backing up my love for Oakland by enclosing my quarterly dues to the Chamber of Commerce, which I think every loyal citizen should support."

"Everywhere I go I am telling those I meet of Oakland Calif., of its charming location on San Francisco bay, its ideal climate, its unsurpassed natural scenery, its wonderful resources and its commercial advantages, including its large, perfect harbor which are making it one of the greatest cities in the world in which to live and work and enjoy life."

"I am constantly more impressed with the fact that the Chamber of Commerce and the press of Oakland should give added encouragement to the builders who are endeavoring, in many cases at a great sacrifice, to provide suitable homes for people flocking to the coast and who, unless scared away, will continue to come to our beautiful city from all over the land."

SCHOOL WOMEN FROLIC TONIGHT

Technical High school auditorium will be opened tonight for the Faculty Frolic of the Oakland School Women's Club. The pedagogues themselves, with friends, will be the guests of the club, which will contribute the vaudeville, proceeds from which will finance the club's delegates to the annual convention of the local Educational Association.

Candidates nominated as delegates are Miss Joyce Lobner, president; Miss Margaret Wales, Miss Margaret Wales, Miss Josephine Kilgore, Miss Lulu Shelton.

The Technical High School Orchestra will render the overture. The dramatic section of the Corona Club of San Francisco will produce a one-act play, "Joint Owners in Spain." In the cast will be Mrs. James Ellison of Piedmont, Mrs. Nancy Probasco, Mrs. A. N. Knoch, Mrs. J. H. Knoch, and Mrs. J. H. Knoch.

CULEX CLAN IS STABBING MEN IN BROAD DAYLIGHT

SALT LAKE, U. T., May 18.—The Culex Clan is making nightly raids in this city. So bold have the members become that citizens have been stabbed on the main streets in broad daylight. The floods caused by the rapidly melting snow is said to have brought the enormous swarms of this breed of mosquito. Physicians say that the culex is not a malaria-carrying insect.

Warships Obtained For Eagles' Meet

SAN JOSE, May 18.—Announcement that permission has been granted by the commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet for the stationing of the United States battleships New York, Texas and Oklahoma in the bay at Santa Cruz for the week starting June 5, marking the state convention of the California Aerie, Order of Eagles, was made here today by Assistant District Attorney Fred L. Thomas, state president of the Eagles.

The permission was granted following strenuous efforts on the part of Thomas and Deputy President Fred A. Frank of Los Angeles. The battleships will be open to the inspection of the crowds sure to be in Santa Cruz during the week of the convention and promise to be a splendid feature of the convocation.

President Thomas announces a unique and interesting program of events for the full week of the program.

LAST RALLY IN C. OF C. DRIVE HELD TONIGHT

Announcement of Awards Will Be Made; Work Ends Tomorrow.

ALAMEDA, May 18.—The final rally in the new Chamber of Commerce membership drive is to take place in the Porter school auditorium tonight. A stirring program has been arranged by the campaign committee. For its chairman and John B. Ratto, dean of American lyceum speakers, are to be the star attractions. Miss Hazel Van Alstern of the Oakland opera company, will sing and the Alameda high school orchestra will furnish the instrumental music for the evening.

Rapid fire four-minute speeches will be made by Major C. L. Tilden, Dr. W. B. Stephens, E. K. Taylor, Hon. Spencer A. W. Porter and others. Carl Strom will preside.

The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock sharp and every man and woman in Alameda is invited to be present to hear of the aims and advantages of the new Chamber of Commerce.

Several hundred names have been added to the membership rolls. Robert Strehlow leads the campaign for the honor, having secured 75. The merchants' team, however, leads the list so far.

The winners of the slogan and essay contest will be announced this evening and the prizes awarded.

Tomorrow will be devoted to a general cleanup. The old board of directors met last night and closed their books so as to hand everything over to the new board, which is elected at the first meeting, all ready for a fresh start.

HARDING WILL NOT TENT IN MUIR

President Harding will not tent in Muir Woods, Marin county, as was previously announced, according to a letter received by Charles J. Creller, grand keeper of records and seal, Knights of Pythias. Creller had written the president that the Muir Woods campsite, which is the site of the opening address at the Sunrise Convention of the Northern California Lodge, Knights of Pythias, which will be held in Muir Woods, July 3 and 4.

The letter from President Harding follows:

"I do not know whence came the story that I am contemplating tenting out in Muir woods. I have no doubt that it would be very attractive, but I am very sure that the limitations of a presidential visit on the west coast will not admit of any such pleasure. It would be very pleasing to me, and I would like to go, but I am unable to confer the rank of page on a very large class early in July, but I am obliged to say that there is not the slightest prospect of my coming to Muir Woods, California, at any time."

"WARREN G. HARDING."

WOMAN, 89, IS CHARGED WITH PICKPOCKETING

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—Mrs. Kate Dietrich, aged 87 years, was charged today with the theft of money from the handbag of Mrs. Rose Mizod, 7434 Boyce street, in a local store yesterday. Detectives Thomas J. Curtis and Edward Wiskottchall arrested Mrs. Dietrich. In her home, 2735 Mission street, the detectives said they have found a large number of stolen articles of clothing valued at about $1000.

Police Investigate Mysterious Fire

The police are today investigating a mysterious fire which broke out in a vacant house at 2057 Twentieth avenue. The fire started shortly before 3 o'clock last night. When Detective Fire Chief Elliot Whitehead arrived on the scene all the windows and doors of the house were locked. The blaze started in the kitchen, near a water boiler. The damage was about $20. The property is owned by Thomas W. Killand of the Dabiel building.

TWO DEAD IN WRECK

ARMORE, Okla., May 18.—Two men were killed and another probably fatally injured when a St. Louis-San Francisco freight train plunged from a bridge over the Arkansas river near Superior, about fifty miles east of here at midnight last night, according to word received here today. Five cars with the engine and tender tumbled from an embankment twenty-five feet high.

Stanford Has Clean-Up Day

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, May 18.—Stanford students took an afternoon off from their studies yesterday and engaged in the annual cleanup of the grounds of the Stanford Convalescent Home. Over a thousand men and women students engaged in the work of cleaning up the grounds, roads, and removing the dead trees about the place.

Dinner was not served at any of the dining groups last night but the conclusion of the work a big barbecue was held on the grounds of the Convalescent Home. Students furnished entertainment for the workers during the meal.

The labor day at the Convalescent Home was started two years ago and has since become an annual affair. The home is located in the heart of the old Stanford residence.

Medals were awarded for excellence in various branches to study to John Norman Stanley, John J. McDonald, Frank McGlynn Jr., Leslie Francis Ghezzi, George Baker Palmer, Louis George Avellar and Luis de la Pena.

FAITHFUL OLD POLICE HORSE DIES ON DUTY

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—A faithful but nevertheless seldom recognized member of the San Francisco Police Department dropped dead today, while on his tour in Golden Gate Park. He was the faithful horse of Mounted Patrolman James Harrington of the Park station, and the latter was painfully injured when the animal collapsed.

Harrington was trotting along the boulevard when he felt himself plunging and was thrown prostrate on the roadway partly under his mount. Extricating himself he discovered that his faithful horse was dead. He had evidently succumbed to a heart failure. Harrington suffered a badly lacerated scalp, bruises of the body and a possible fracture of several ribs.

Campaign to Save Redwoods Launched

Preparations for a campaign to save the redwoods along the skyline boulevard were made last evening at a meeting of delegates from various Oakland organizations, convened at the headquarters of the Civic League of Improvement Associations in the Bacon block.

After endorsement from Native Sons of the Golden West and the Pioneer Women of Oakland were read, the landscape architect of the park board, Howard Gilkey, presented plans of the park board to give the people an opportunity of preserving the parks at the August election when the bond issue to provide for the purchase of the recreation grounds will be decided by popular vote.

C. D. Lucas of the Santa Fe Improvement Club proposed the holding of a public barbecue on Redwood Park on the Fourth of July, at which the city would be invited. To prepare for this event and other activities, the following were chosen as a committee to meet next Saturday at 2 p. m. in suite 312, Bacon building.

Ernest P. Engler, chairman; Louis Aber, John Golder, Allen Hilberd, B. W. Hoover, George P. Keyes, C. D. Lucas, Samuel Swan, J. T. Williams.

Do you like to spend your vacation in out-of-the-way places?

In the unfrequented spots that are difficult to get to you will find the best fishing, the best hunting, and the most complete change from the crowded city.

The roads to these places may be rough and rocky, and it may be a long way between gas stations, but you will have no fear about "getting there" if you buy one of the light used cars listed in the Classified Columns of yesterday (the Wednesday Color Section) and today.

Some of these cars may not be pretty, but the way that they can climb mountain grades is a marvel. Besides, they use so little fuel that you will never have to worry about the distance to the next gas station.

The committee in charge of the program is: Arthur Fogarty, Clark Minor, H. M. Bradley, Miss Caroline Pratt, Vernal McKoon and Homer R. Spence.

The program will start at 8:30 and will be followed by a reception and dance. The equipment of the new post headquarters has been presented to the legion members by the citizens as a token of appreciation of the services which the men and women rendered during the war.

Drugstore Robbed By Daring Ruse

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—The Holgate Drug Company in the Ferry Building was robbed. It is believed, by a former employee, who succeeded in gaining access to the place through a ruse early today.

According to H. E. Allen, the manager, a discharged clerk last night visited the store. He told the night clerk, Fred Shortridge, that the proprietor had told him to get the keys and open up in the morning. Shortridge handed them over, and today when Allen appeared he discovered that $155 in cash had been taken.

MRS. WILHOIT TELLS REASON OF DAZED WANDERING

Mother of "Most Perfect Baby" Flew From Man's Attention.

LOS ANGELES, May 18.—Mrs. Merle R. Wilhoit, of San Francisco, who was found by the police yesterday in Hollywood wandering around in a dazed condition, said she had gone riding with a woman who had been introduced to her as Harriet Fox, and a man whose name she did not remember. They stopped at a hotel for tea, and soon thereafter Mrs. Wilhoit said she suddenly lost her memory of events. When she again regained consciousness Mrs. Wilhoit said the three of them were in a house near where the police found her in Hollywood.

Mrs. Wilhoit was in a dangerous condition when found and was taken to the Emergency hospital for treatment. The police are searching for the couple that were with Mrs. Wilhoit.

According to Mrs. Wilhoit's disjointed account which she sobbed when found wandering the streets yesterday, she can remember her visiting friends in Santa Barbara. At the suggestion of a mutual friend, she invited a Mrs. Harriet Fox to go with her to the theater and later went to Mrs. Fox's house with two men the latter had introduced. At supper, drinks which she supposed harmless, were served.

"Then I remember nothing until I found myself lighting the attentions of a man whom I escaped by running from the house."

Mrs. Wilhoit is the mother of Douglas Woods Wilhoit, 3, adjudged by San Francisco physicians "California's most perfect baby."

Mrs. Wilhoit, still nervously upset, is in the Angeles hospital here.

WORKMANSHIP THAT IS A FINE ART

LONG BEFORE the painter, upholsterer, body designer and metal worker begin to exercise their crafts upon the Pierce-Arrow, machinists are tooling and finishing parts; wheels, pinions, shafts and cogs; with a precision and an accuracy as beautiful in their way as the arts that make the body beautiful. These parts, machined to some infinitesimal fraction of an inch, in their clean and shining sharpness are like jewels cut with exquisite care. It is a comfort to feel that they are inside the car working together with ease in silence, the natural result of carefulness and skill.

WORLD REPORTS ARE PRESENTED TO ADVENTISTS

Women's Control in Burma
Is Described to Conclave
By Missionary.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—With the center of activities focused on a vigorous religious liberty program, reports from various missionary fields were received yesterday at the Civic Auditorium, where the world convention of the Seventh Day Adventist church is in progress.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Beckner, delegates to the convention from Burma, told of that curious country where woman has the leading hand in everything except religious matters. They told of the Buddhist customs and practices and displayed a number of the idols of Buddha made of mud and said to be of ancient origin.

Reports of the day included those made by delegates from the home fields in the New England States and the North Pacific Union, the Home church at Washington, D. C., W. E. Lanier of Honduras and J. W. Thurber of Guatemala.

C. S. Longacre presented the report of the religious liberty committee and his talk was followed by a paper on religious liberty work in Australia by C. K. Meyers, secretary for that district.

Harding's Brother Is Labeled 'Duke' And 'Your Majesty'

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—"He says it is a pleasure to meet your majesty," Dr. George T. Harding, brother of the President, looked amazed as he heard those words today from an interpreter who was introducing to him a native of far off India at the world convention of Seventh Day Adventists.

"Dr. Harding," he corrected the interpreter.

"He says he wishes the Duke greatest good fortune," continued the man who was acting as intermediary.

Dr. Harding protested.

"Please explain to this gentleman that we have no dukes or majesties in this country," he directed.

"I'm Dr. Harding, and that's all."

But delegates from distant lands, who speak no word of English, were having a hard time to become chummy with the brother of the American president.

Meyers stated that in Australia it was illegal for a man to work at his regular calling on Sunday. This works an extreme hardship on the members of the Seventh Day Adventist church, who observe Saturday as their day of worship.

Keaton Non-Skid Cords are as essential as your brakes

Even on a perfectly dry road KEATON NON-SKIDS will stop your car in a much shorter distance than that required with ordinary tires. A few feet to spare on the congested streets and highways will avoid an accident, expense, injury and possibly death.

The "unexpected" accidents during the touring season are largely caused by skidding. Summer fog, dew, seeping water on mountain roads, the sprinkling cart, etc., cause many regrettable skidding accidents. "KEATON NON-SKIDS" make touring safe and pleasant.

This is the World's SAFEST Motor Car

Cole Eight Ninety

"We are prepared to show that this new Cole Eight Ninety is the safest car on slippery paving—the safest car on sharp turns at high speed—the safest car on the precipitous climb or on the even more dangerous descent—the safest car in traffic where life is a matter of inches and where you graze fenders with fools—safest wherever brakes, acceleration and perfect balance count."—From an advertisement by the Cole Motor Car Company, Indianapolis, pages 102-103 in the Saturday Evening Post, May 20, 1922.

DRIVE

BIG POWER for BIG AUTOMOBILES

You selected your car carefully for quality. Select your motor fuel the same way. It is unfair to feed a good car an inferior gasoline.

"Red Crown" answers completely the automotive engineer's demand for a motor fuel that will vaporize rapidly and uniformly in the carburetor and explode cleanly in the cylinders. All the heat units it contains are converted into power at the drive wheels.

"Red Crown" is uniform in quality—every gallon is the same, wherever and whenever you buy it. Fill at the Red Crown sign—at Service Stations, at garages, or other dealers.

Eight million automobiles crowd the streets and highways of America—eight million automobiles in every imaginable state of mechanical fitness, directed by eight million drivers of every shade of expertness and carefulness.

Do you wonder that the Cole Eight Ninety, "engineered on the one basic principle of safety," has focused on it today the attention of every right-minded driver in America?

Motor car safety boils down to brakes, acceleration and balance. Brakes, acceleration and balance make this new Cole Eight Ninety "the world's safest motor car."

Its brakes are the safest yet devised. They have the power for the sharpest emergency—yet they do not grab. This Cole's brakes make safe braking instinctive, instead of an art as with many cars. There is a peculiarly soft, velvety action as both brakes take hold equally, with a smooth, cumulative pressure. Skidding is almost impossible. Here is a car that women drive in confident safety.

Cole Eight Ninety's acceleration is a marvel. From a standstill to fifty miles an hour is the work of twenty-two and two-fifths seconds. In the lightning leap out of danger Cole again shows its basic safety.

Add Cole balance. In the Cole Eight Ninety's extraordinary freedom from skidding, balance plays its part along with perfect brakes. Cole tire mileage (20,000 miles per set) is tangible proof. The master of this motor car knows that it will go where he sends it, without sway, or swerve. You don't have to fight the steering wheel of Cole Eight Ninety for your place in the road.

If you want "the world's safest motor car" to protect yourself, your wife, your children, your friends, and the fools who jay-walk and the fools who joy-ride, you want this new Cole Eight Ninety. You want it, too, for its years of serviceability, for the power of its eight-cylinder engine, for its gasoline economy and freedom from repair bills, for its beauty and distinction, for the satisfaction you will feel at having invested your money so wisely.

Cole Eight Ninety sells for only $2485 at Indianapolis.

Would you like to ride in "the world's safest motor car?" We will gladly take you whenever you are ready.

BANKER SEES RAPID GROWTH FOR OAKLAND

Fifteen Buildings, Each to Cost Over Million, Soon To Be Started.

Building activity is the most significant thing in the Oakland situation in the opinion of George M. Mellon, who spoke yesterday before the Oakland Round Table.

"Oakland has entered upon its long-awaited period of growth," the speaker said. "The period which was foreseen by all who recognized its strategic location from the standpoint of export business. Sixty-six new industries have located in Oakland in the past year, and from a position of obscurity Oakland has suddenly sprung into a place of prominence in the industrial world."

Mellon declared that the new spirit which is prevalent among the people of Oakland and the new spirit of activity shown by the Chamber of Commerce are important factors in the present situation, and urged that the members of the Oakland Round Table co-operate fully with the Chamber of Commerce in the raising of the $100,000 fund for community development.

Attention was called to the fact that Oakland has the best working climate in the world, a mean temperature of 58 degrees; that it is a city of service and efficiency and health, an ideal industrial location as well as a city of unexcelled landscape beauty.

Mellon further said that he had knowledge of fifteen new buildings in view for the immediate future, each costing in excess of one million dollars.

Announcements were received from the international organization of the department of the Loyal Knights of the Round Table respecting the organization of local Round Tables in San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Leandro, Portland and Seattle.

France Opens War On Fordney Tariff

PARIS, May 18. — The French ministry of commerce, associated with the foreign office, has requested Ambassador Jusserand at Washington to make energetic protests against the Fordney tariff act which is held unacceptable to France. It was learned this afternoon from the office of Minister of Commerce Di Or.

"We wish to safeguard French industry from duties which are excessive," he said, "at the least, the coldness of the climate at this time of year, will be to make themselves clothing from the inner bark of certain trees. Fish and game will be caught with crude implements of their own manufacture."

COUPLE TO TRY ADAM AND EVE STUNT IN EAST

BOSTON, May 18. — (By International News Service.) — Littering the Maine woods on Saturday naked and without food or weapons, Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Sutter announced here today that they will prove that they can live an absolutely primitive life, with none of civilization's aids, for a period of six weeks.

Sutter, who is 27, and his wife, who is a slight but strong young woman of 23, have picked the wildest part of north central Maine for their experiment. Their first problem, in view of the coldness of the climate at this time of year, will be to make themselves clothing from the inner bark of certain trees. Fish and game will be caught with crude implements of their own manufacture.

RESINOL FOR ITCHING TORTURE

Use Antiseptic Liquid Zemo. There is one remedy that seldom fails to stop itching torture and relieve skin irritation, and that makes the skin soft, clear and healthy.

Any drugstore can supply you with Zemo, which generally overcomes skin diseases. Eczema, itch, pimples, rashes, blackheads, in most cases, give way to Zemo. Frequently, minor blemishes disappear overnight. Itching usually stops instantly. Zemo is a safe, antiseptic liquid. It costs only 50c a bottle. It is extra large bottle, $1.00. It is positively safe for tender, sensitive skins. — Advertisement.

AD MASQUE TO OPEN SATURDAY WITH ALADDIN

More Than 300 Characters Will Take Part in Colorful Affair.

The seventh annual Ad Masque is ready for Saturday evening in the municipal auditorium. It will begin at 8 o'clock.

The theme of the masquerade is "Aladdin." The parade of Ads feature will embrace four or five hundred characters. Finishing touches to the spectacle are under way. Otto Riehl, scenic artist, has painted appropriate scenery and settings for "Aladdin."

"Aladdin" comes to a climax in the Feast of Lanterns. A feature of this will be the bridal procession including the emperor, the princess and her hero Aladdin. Among the Hindu slave girl and the bazaar keeper.

In the Parade of Ads, visualizing advertising is the aim. Living ads will take part, representing manufacturing plants, civic clubs and mercantile firms.

The Goddess of Truth will be impersonated by Miss Minnie Diehl. On the floor of the arena, lamps of oil and gas will be used which the pageant will move. Each feature will have its truth girl, dressed in white.

The Ad Masque will close with a grand ball.

Here "He" Is, Master of the Lamp

Meet ALADDIN in his golden raiment as he will be presented by MISS LILLIAN ELKINS in the Arabian Nights spectacle at the Ad Masque, Municipal Auditorium, Saturday night.

RICHMOND, May 18.—Richmond Den of Lions saw themselves as others see them at the T. & D. theater last night, when the Oakland TRIBUNE movies taken of the Lions during a recent luncheon session at Busch's Inn were shown on the screen. Last night was "Lions' Night" at the theater and Manager Dan Reardon made it a memorable evening for the club. The theater was packed to the doors by the Lions, their wives, sweethearts and friends. The pictures will be shown again tonight for the last time in Richmond.

Funeral Held For Four-Day-Old Child

RICHMOND, May 18.—Funeral services for Beatrice Mary Re, four-day-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Domenico Re, who died Tuesday, were held today from the family home, 1210 Chanslor avenue. Interment was in St. Joseph's cemetery. Besides the parents, the child is survived by a sister, Florence.

STYLED REVOLUTIONARY

Power said in part:

"The California Water and Power Act is revolutionary and vicious."

It gives $500,000,000 into the hands of five men appointed by the Governor, to expend without check. It formally renounces the California public utilities, employ and compensate employees without check, who are subject to such civil service rules as shall be made by the commission itself. It is a complete surrender of California's great political machine.

"This measure has within it the seeds of all kinds of socialistic and communistic theories. It proposes, in the name of the people, to take over all the public utilities, and to operate them as a public utility, leaving the stockholders the delay of long years of litigation to realize anything from their confiscated property."

"The Associated Charities needs Catholic homes where the boys between the ages of seven and fourteen may be boarded. The society pays a rate of $17.50 a month and provides clothing for its foster children. The Catholic boys are willing to board children are asked to register at the headquarters in the Oakland City Hall."

GENOA TO BE TOPIC.

John Collier, past president of the National Community Center Association, will talk on "The Background of the Genoa Conference" at the luncheon of the Mutual Business Club today at the Oakland City Hall.

TO TALK ON HOUSING.

R. Holby Myers, of Los Angeles, will speak on "The Housing Situation in Relation to Industry" at the meeting tomorrow of the Oakland Optimists Club at the Hotel Oakland.

S. F. ENGINEER BETRAYS PEOPLE, CHARGES LOCKE

COMMITTEE IS CHOSEN TO PLAN GLORIOUS FOURTH

Alameda Official Declares O'Shaughnessy Is Wrong On Power Act.

Charges that City Engineer M. O'Shaughnessy is betraying the people of San Francisco in the matter of water and power were made by W. J. Locke, city attorney of Alameda County, at a meeting of the County Board of Supervisors yesterday, meeting in the Y. W. C. A. building.

"You make that as a charge," declared Charles S. Peery, assistant city attorney of San Francisco, interrupting the speaker.

"I do," replied Locke.

The men were invited to appear before the council to discuss the water and power act, which will be presented to the people of California at the November election. Locke supported the measure which allows the state to be bonded for $500,000,000, and Peery opposed.

O'Shaughnessy's name was introduced in what developed into a heated argument when the Hetchy project was touched upon.

PROVISIONS OUTLINED.

Locke outlined the provisions of the act and stressed the necessity that existed for development of hydro-electric power. He held that water, development and distribution should be under federal and state control.

A dispute arose between the two speakers as to whether the act of five in whom, under the act, is invested absolute power will be subject to recall. A clause declaring that it will be the duty of the legislature to provide for such recall was read.

The average cost of power in California is the cheapest in the world, Herbert Hoover was quoted as saying by Peery.

"Nobody reads this act for themselves. The people of California are willing to base their vote upon what they hear about it. Read it," he implored.

THE FOURTH OF JULY COMMITTEE.

The Fourth of July committee for the 1922 celebration, consisting of representatives of all the veterans' organizations, was appointed by Mayor Davis and approved by the city council today. His letter to the council, naming the delegates followed.

In accordance with the policy originated last year, of placing the Fourth of July celebration in charge of the Veterans of our city, I have appointed the following representatives of the various veterans organizations with Eugene K. Sturges, city clerk, as general chairman of Fourth of July committee, to promote and take charge of the celebration for this year. Other members of the committee are:

Richard M. Lyman, Oakland Post No. 5, American Legion; general secretary, G. W. Langan, Grand Army of the Republic; B. A. Forrester, United Spanish War Veterans; J. C. Gagner, E. H. Lincoln Camp, United Spanish War Veterans; Donald P. McClure, Argonne Post, American Legion; Earl Warren, Oakland Post, American Legion; Dr. R. I. Newell, Astor Post No. 85, Veterans of Foreign Wars; E. C. Parker, Lieutenant F. Haskell Waterhouse Post No. 78, Veterans of Foreign Wars; Harry W. Reynolds, Allied Filers Club.

I feel that this will make an excellent general committee and that with the sub-committees which will be formed from the representative organizations, Oakland will have a second Fourth of July celebration under the auspices of our Veterans which will be a credit to them and to our city.

R. O. T. C. COURSES ARE LAUDED AT LIONS' LUNCHEON

Officers Address Oakland
Den On Value of Training For Young.

The Reserve Officers' Training Corps furnished the subject of two talks given at yesterday's luncheon of the Oakland Lions Club at the Hotel Oakland. Major W. J. McCaughey spoke on "What the R. O. T. C. Means to the Nation." Major Francis R. Hunter discussed "The Value of the R. O. T. C. to the Business of the Community."

"Every war this country has engaged in, with the exception of the Mexican War, has found this country absolutely unprepared," said Major McCaughey. In part "One reason is the indifference of our people to preparedness."

"The army and navy have always been the football of Congress. Therefore the nation has had no military policy."

"The R. O. T. C. student is on the same basis as any other citizen. In time of war he is called no sooner than he would be if he had not taken such training."

"There are now about 100,000 students undergoing training in this country. There are about 700 boys in the local unit. I have eight assistants in my work, provided by the federal government without cost to the school department."

Major Hunter, the second speaker, said:

"In school the unit is the individual. In the R. O. T. C. attention is directed toward the group, the squad of eight men. There the boy learns the value of cooperation, which you as business men know is essential to success. The youngster in the squad learns that in order to be promoted he must excel. He must be loyal and truthful, and both these qualities are business assets. The boy's courage is developed also, as well as his initiative."

"Among the important things developed in the R. O. T. C. training are service, loyalty, self-respect and honor."

WOMAN FOUND IN PIEDMONT HILLS BY BOYS

PIEDMONT, May 18. — Mrs. Rosa Monaco, aged 60 years, missing from her home here since Sunday morning, was found by Boy Scouts last evening on the Hooper property in the Piedmont hills. She was first seen by First Class Boy Scout Merle Bushan of 20 Oakland avenue. She had sprained her ankle and had had nothing to eat or drink since leaving the home of her sister, Mrs. C. Randall, 33 Craig avenue, to take a walk.

A searching party of Boy Scouts headed by Police Chief Becker spent the entire day searching for Mrs. Monaco.

Kansas City Post Sale Announced

KANSAS CITY, May 18. — Purchase of the Kansas City Post, afternoon newspaper, by Walter S. Dieck, publisher of the Kansas City Journal, morning paper, was announced today. Acquisition of the Post from Bonfilis and Tammen of Denver and Kansas City, came after arrangements virtually had been completed for publication of an afternoon paper from the Journal's plant June 1.

LOEW'S STATE

While contrast of types, both in characters and scenery, is afforded in "A Gentle Whirlwind," the new feature picture, now running at Loew's State Theater. Headed by John, "The Pearl of Hawaii," the vaudeville show is proving an unusual diversion. Wagner and Ellis have a sly sense of comedy. Melville and Stetson whistle and harmonize.

Olivia and Adrienne are gymnasts. In "Whittier with the stars" in three excellent players appear in a comedy.

Grace Cameron, famous in eastern musical comedy circles, is the headlining feature at Loew's State Theater, beginning next Sunday.

Other interesting acts coming Sunday are Franchini Bros., "Let's Go"; Monte and Lyons, and Freda's "The Wonder of the World." The picture feature is Colleen Moore in "Come On Over," a Rupert Hughes story.

CARTWRIGHT TO QUIT U. C. WHEN BARROWS LEAVES

Executive Secretary Says He Will Resign to Go Into Business.

BERKELEY, May 18. — When President David P. Barrows relinquishes his post on June 30, 1923, Morse A. Cartwright, executive secretary of the university, will also give up his place.

This was announced yesterday, following commencement exercises of the campus. Cartwright says he will engage in private business. His resignation will take effect the same day as that of President Barrows.

Cartwright, a graduate of the university with the class of 1912, has held the post of executive secretary for the past three years, being appointed to that position by the regents following the resignation of President Benjamin Ide Wheeler. When Dr. Barrows assumed the duties of president, Cartwright kept in his position, university to run two of the University Press and was later appointed secretary to President Wheeler. Before assuming his campus duties he was city editor of the Riverside Enterprise.

T. & D.

Tom Mix in "The Rough Diamond," Buster Keaton in "The Pale Face," Corinne Griffith in "Island Wives" and a musical specialty, "The Music Box," are attractions of the Oakland T. & D. theater this week. The TRIBUNE T. & D. Camera News shows a number of interesting and entertaining events of the Eastbay cities.

Charles Chaplin in "Pay Day," the latest comedy of the famous comedian, will appear on the screen next week. Katherine MacDonald will be seen in "Her Social Value," a melodramatic achievement.

Addison Fowler and Florence Tamara, dance artists, will offer a series of novel dancing numbers. The program comes from the Ziegfeld Roof in New York City.

AMERICAN

An unexpected change in plans brings "Bought and Paid For," the screen version of George Broadhurst's play, to the American starting today, replacing "Beyond the Rocks," which was originally scheduled to run two weeks. Jack Holt and Agnes Ayres are seen in the leading roles.

The film version seems to be more vivid than the spoke drama, which is still ranked among the best of the plays of this decade.

On the same bill are rounds five and six of the "Leather Pushers." H. C. Witwer's famous prize ring stories published in Collier's, John Wharry Lewis and his orchestra round out an attractive program.

IDORA

Radio concerts transmitted through the world's largest magnavox is an additional attraction at Idora Park.

The giant magnavox has been placed at the upper end of the swimming tank. The delicate mechanism and radio receiver is inside a specially built house. The air is swept for concerts and radiophone news.

A special feature of this Sunday will be the P. A. A.

Meanwhile Idora's funmakers are proving tremendously popular. Among these are the big dipper, the whip, the racing horses, the magic carpet, dodging the race through the clouds, the captive airplanes and the carousel.

Roller skating, dancing and swimming are also popular.

NEW FRANKLIN

Vividly the production of "The Girl Who Left Home" is presented with a lavish treatment of settings, costumes, towns and cast. The story deals with the more wacky class and is sane and truthful throughout.

Magnificent gowns, cabarets, magnificent apartments and country houses are shown. The value of love and clothes to the hearts of these social butterflies bring many a heartache to the wealthy as these false gods do to their less wealthy sisters.

Anna Q. Nilsson handles the main role and a capable supporting cast includes: Katharine Perry, Maurine Powers, George Lessey, and Julia Swayne Gordon.

The film starts next Saturday at the Franklin theater for seven days. A Sherlock Holmes story, "The Resident Patient," is also shown.

NEW CHIMES

Gloria Swanson, who has been called the best dressed woman on the screen, features this picture. Her reputation in "Her Husband's Trade," her third Paramount starring vehicle now showing at the New Chimes theater.

Miss Swanson's array of feminine attire in this instance constitutes a veritable feast for the eyes. The story is a money-mad business man who schemes to the theory that a show of money attracts money and that a beautifully groomed wife is the best indicator of a husband's prosperity and wealth.

Richard Wayne is leading man and others in the cast are Lucien Littlefield, Clarence Burton, Charles Ogle, and Edith Chapman.

ROAD SHOWS

The Oakland Orpheum Theater will open its summer season of legitimate theatrical attractions next Sunday under the direction of W. A. Jusco, who has leased the house from the Orpheum vaudeville circuit interests. "The Unloved Wife," a play which deals with the problems of a woman who is married, is to be the opening attraction. The woman's side of the marriage story is revealed in the play.

"What makes a man different after he is married? What causes every married man at some time to think she is unloved? These questions form the basis of the story. The company which will present the play here is said to be a "No. 1" company composed of able actors. Special matinees for women only will be given every day during the week's engagement.

Cuticura Soap IS IDEAL For the Hands

GIRLS DO FINE TRADE IN BOOZE PRESCRIPTIONS

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 18. —Miss Capitola Coleman, twenty, and Miss Eleanor Phelps, seventeen, had a new solution for the unemployed working girl problem until police here interfered.

They visited physicians, complained of terrible cases of "cramps" and secured whiskey prescriptions for $2 to $3.50 per copy. Then they sold them for $4 or $5 each.

"A girl can get a liquor prescription from a doctor without hard trying," they told the police. "Some doctors were awfully kind."

An average day's work gave them $6.50 profit, they declared.

Business was good with the girls until Miss Phelps, it is alleged, "lifted" an asterisk belonging to a telephone operator in a doctor's office.

Hens Learn Caution Where Autos Run

WASHINGTON, May 18. —(U.S. man) beings have as much sense as chickens.

So believes George M. Graham, who, at a dinner here of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, voiced the opinion that "it is possible to educate chickens to caution it ought to be possible to educate human beings."

"I notice the chicken is becoming very cautious," said Graham. "She is learning something and I say 'she' advisedly, for I notice that the chicken that gets run over is always a hen."

"Now," he asked, "if hens with their limited modicum of brains can be trained that far in safety, why not also children? It is simply a case of carrying the message to them."

AUTO GAS KILLS MAN.

DENVER, May 18. —Emil Pederson, thirty-eight, an automobile mechanic, is dead here from "auto gas." While working in a garage Pederson is said to have inhaled large quantities of monoxide gas from the exhaust of an engine and physicians declare this gas caused his death.

OFFICIAL EARS FOR SOB STORIES

WASHINGTON, May 18. —Uncle Sam's official listener to "sob" stories is one of the world's most patient and indulgent men.

He is James A. Finch, pardon attorney of the Department of Justice.

Day after day mothers pour their appeals into his ears—pleas for leniency in cases of men incarcerated for crime.

Finch's office is thronged almost daily with such visitors waiting their turn. Sometimes he must hear the pitiful stories of little children, come to ask the government to wipe the records clean for fathers serving terms for law-breaking.

The Attorney-General rates Finch as one of the government's most efficient officers, and his recommendations are usually based upon Finch's personal investigation of facts set forth in clemency appeals, which number thousands annually.

The Call of the Far East

Walter Kelly, famous in vaudeville as The Virginia Judge, has an old friend at Buffalo who formerly was a Fenian and now is the most confirmed of Sinn Feiners. If there is anything on earth Kelly's friend doesn't like it's something English. His version of the British national anthem probably would run: "God Save the King Till We Can Get at 'Um."

In the early part of this year Kelly was playing in vaudeville at Buffalo. As he sat in his dressing-room, awaiting his turn, his ancient acquaintance came in to see him. When greetings had been exchanged Kelly said:

"Well, Denis, it's a great day for all of us who are of Irish blood. Now that England has granted Ireland self-government, there's no reason, as I see it, why the Irish and the English should not try to forget their old feud and live hereafter at peace. The Irish have no further cause for a quarrel with the British!"

"Well, I don't know about that, Walter," said the unrecalled Dennis. "Don't ye think now we ought to be doin' somethin' on account o' thim poor Hindus?"

Every Man His Own Wife.

HOW TO WASH A WINDOW

There was probably no single accomplishment of which the average wife is prouder than her ability to wash a window until it is clean. Her pride is almost infantile in its enthusiastic naivete. You would suppose, to see her gazing fondly upon her handiwork, that she not only invented window washing, but windows, also. And yet how easy it is to wash a window.

First find your window. That dark spot on the wall is it. Cover it over with soapy water. Then wipe it off. The inside first, of course. After you have wiped it dry it will look slightly darker. Do not be discouraged. Raise the window, crawl outside, sit on the ledge with your feet hanging inside and close the window until you are holding it cozily in your lap. It is well to have brought your bucket and sponge with you, else you will have to make a trip inside for them.

Cover the outside of your window with soapy water and wipe it off with a squeegee. It derives its name from the inarticulate cries it makes as it squees and goes up and down the glass. You should now be able to see the inside of the room, "darkly, as through a glass." The poet who wrote that evidently had been washing windows.

You now wipe the window with rags. The more wiped the better. The more rags the better. Your window will now become streaked. Do not be discouraged. Wipe it some more. See, it is becoming more streaked. Keep on wiping. Success! Now you can see nothing but streaks. Your task is nearly accomplished. You are now ready for the last operation.

Select a large brick, a fairly firm one is the best, and toss it through the middle of your window. Then call a glazier and have him insert a new glass. Your window is now as clean as any wife could make it. How simple. How easy. And yet, how successful! Why should any man marry just to get his windows washed! I ask you!

Here I am, who wants me?

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE TEACHER BIRD.

Once upon a time Uncle Wiggily Longears, the good bunny rabbit gentleman, was hopping through the woods. He had not gone far from his hollow stump bungalow before he heard a voice calling to him.

"Uncle Wiggily, Uncle Wiggily, please wait a moment!"

At first Mr. Longears thought he ought to hop as fast as he could and find a place to hide.

"For," he called himself, "this may be the Woosie Wolf or the Fuzzy Fox." But again the voice called.

"Please wait for me, Uncle Wiggily."

"That cannot be either of the bad creatures," said the bunny with a laugh and a twinkle of his pink nose. "They would not be so polite as to say please. This must be a friend of mine."

And, looking back through the trees, Uncle Wiggily saw Johnnie Bushytail, one of the squirrel boys. "Scamper along, Johnnie!" called the bunny gentleman. "I'll wait for you. Where are you going?"

"I'm going to school," chattered Johnnie. "My brother Willie went on ahead and I'm afraid I'll be late."

"Then I'll take hold of your paw and help you to hop fast as the wind," called Uncle Wiggily. "Come on!"

He and Johnnie were just about to start off, when, all of a sudden, the squirrel boy looked at what seemed to be a round ball of grass down on the ground.

"Oh, here is the football! I'm going to kick it," cried the squirrel boy. "Watch me kick!"

"No, don't do that," cried Uncle Wiggily. "You'll kick the football made of grass, Johnnie."

"What is it?" asked the squirrel boy.

"It is the nest of the oven bird," answered the bunny. "This bird makes its nest on the ground, weaving grass and sticks into the half-round shape you see here, and that it looks like a hole or an old-fashioned Dutch oven. That is how the bird gets one of its names. If we look we may see the bird, but please don't kick the nest or you might break some of the eggs."

"Oh, I wouldn't do that for the world," cried the squirrel boy. "I didn't know that was a nest."

"Well, I have to thank Uncle Wiggily for telling me," said Johnnie. "I'll be sure to keep my paw off the bushes, and out now a slender light brown bird, with queer black streaks in the white feathers of its breast."

"Are you the oven bird?" asked Johnnie.

"Yes, was the answer. "And a dear old Nature gentleman, named Bushytail, has called me the 'Teachin' Bird.'"

"What is that?" asked the squirrel boy.

"Well," began the oven bird, "I suppose it is because—"

"But just then Uncle Wiggily caught Johnnie by the paw and said, 'Excuse me, but if you don't hurry to school, Johnnie, you'll be late. The lady mouse teacher will not like that.'"

"Right you are," exclaimed the squirrel boy. "Goodbye to the bird and hurried on. But when they reached the Nature stump school, they found that something had happened."

"Oh, what do you think?" cried Baby Bushytail, hopping up to Uncle Wiggily. "The lady mouse teacher isn't here yet, and it's most time for her to come, and what are we going to do?"

"The lady mouse teacher not here yet?" exclaimed the bunny in surprise. "As his pink nose twinkled very fast. 'That is strange! I hope nothing has happened here. Maybe the Fuzzy Fox caught her when she was coming through the woods,' said Nuntio Wiggily, the goat."

"Oh, maybe," mewed Kitten Kat. "And maybe she's hidden through the woods looking for her," suggested the pussy girl.

"That's a good idea," agreed Uncle Wiggily. "Come on, we'll try to find the lady mouse teacher."

And the girl animal pupils hurried through the woods calling for their teacher, whom they loved very much.

Suddenly there was a fluttering in the bushes, and the oven bird flew out.

"I think I can help you, Uncle Wiggily," twittered the bird.

"How?" asked the bunny.

"By flying through the forest and loudly calling, 'Teacher! Teacher! Teacher!'" answered the bird. "That is one thing I do very well, the cry of 'Teacher!'"

Of course, it isn't really that, but it sounds very much like it. And the name the Lady Mouse may hear me when she would not hear you. Besides I can fly in many places you could not reach."

"Please do!" begged the bunny. So the oven bird flew through the woods calling for 'Teacher! Teacher!'"

And all birds call.

"All of a sudden, a voice answered. 'Here I am, who wants me?'"

And there was the Lady Mouse herself! On the way to school she was so tired that she sat down on a log to rest. There she fell asleep, and she might have slept all day except that she heard the shrill cry of the teacher bird and awakened.

When she awoke on to the hollow stump school, it being the first time she was ever late. But the animal children forgave her, and she thanked the oven bird. So everything ended happily, and if the buttonhole doesn't tie a tin can to the tail of a shirt and make it jump over the clothesline, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the bird with horns.

Marriage

"Oh-h—girl—s— Look at this— Isn't it just darling? Yes—little girl— It is very fetching— Baby blue silk nighties— And soft lace dressing caps— Will make that— Pink and white face of yours— Very alluring. But wait, girlie— Your hope chest is full— Of fluffy things— To SLEEP in— And married life is— A wide-awake job. It is no giggling trip— On a merry-go-round. So put away your hope chest— And show the girls— Your new alarm clock— Set to do its duty— At six—A. M. And, girlie— Fair day or foul— It never disappoints. Show them your waffle iron— And your new coffee pot— And your bride's cook book. For baby blue nighties— Fade—like love. Hot waffles and coffee— Go on forever. And another thing, girlie— Have you thought of the day— When a grunting—red faced— Little baby— Will blindly root its way— To your full-rounded breast— Have you thought of this— And thrilled to the thought? Deep in your heart? If it is, girlie— Your hope chest— Will not have been in vain. And flapper or saint— You will have fulfilled— Your heritage. You will have become— The full ripe being— You were meant— To be."

PSYCHO-ANALYSIS

by ANDRE TRIDON

WHEN A MALE ARTIST MARRIES

ARTISTS should never marry artists. Professional jealousy soon breaks up the strongest love bonds and the tenderest relationship into bitter hatred.

The only type of woman with whom the male artist may live in peace and contentment, at least for a while, is the submissive, unassuming type.

Artists, however, live on flattery and are usually very blind to the flatterer's ulterior motives. A great artist who died recently was an easy victim to every budding musician who would sycophantically sing his praise. The mere words, "It is a great honor to play a few notes as you do," enabled my young and enterprising exploiter to negotiate a "loan."

Flattery coming constantly from the same person is apt to lose its power of egotistical gratification. Flattery coming from a pretty woman, be she ever so stupid, whose attraction has not been weakened by daily contact, will send the artist hand into forbidden paths. Unconsciously, the artist is attracted to the woman who is in the "the concert," she will eventually be granted a divorce for obvious infidelity.

Consequently the already grinding of the divorce mills in stage-land, operatic circles and the concert world result in very few serious heartbreaks.

I have often wondered about the older ones what the young lady who signs herself "A. B. C. D. E. F. G. H. I. J. K. L. M. N. O. P. Q. R. S. T. U. V. W. X. Y. Z." is asking about the young men. And glad she is thinking it says: "I would love to meet you, Jerry, and best you suffer condemnation alone at the hands of the gent who signs himself 'One of Jerry's Gang,' just let me say I am with you on the moonlight rides any time you are short one of the 'weaker sex.'"

I can assure you that the artist is at least. Am surprised that this gent does not start a move to suppress such movies as the 'Virgin Paradise,' where one of our film favorites appears in a ridiculous role. As for me, I would favor the fig leaf style and be comfortable, happy and decent. If any more reactionaries pop up, Jerry, remember you do not have to fight alone.

"Love to you."

THANKS, pal, Jerry and the moon are up. I can assure you that you the next time we eat a midnight supper on the top of our favorite hill.

When my beating heart feels the first touch of spring I'm going to buckle my armor under my chin and go hunting for you, son, so you better be ready. If you don't WANT to be "captured,"

"Dear Jerry:

"What an Irish name, too. You're a komikale old hen, too. You make me feel like a kid again. Some have stated that they believed you to be a man, but 'tain't so, kiddo. No, you're one of the obstinate sex, all right. But listen: 'Tain't right to let a girl know you're a man. You're a man, but you're a man, 'cause it would make us believe the women ain't got no sense of humor, but let them think so. So marry me once or twice and I'll find that they never knowed there was so much sense on earth as contained in some of these dago little women's heads. Why, they can put it all over us connected stubble faces."

"Now the lady who concerns herself over 'Dot' rushing the kissing game is showing that she is most jealous because she herself hasn't got the courage to do it. So, sister, sister. Now, my dear is that if a girl wants to be kissed she must first let a fellow know that she wants to be kissed by kissing him first. Just another word or two in times a fellow hates to ask a girl for a kiss for fear it might insult her, but you see, there ain't nothing that'll insult a female in the kissing line. All he has to know is that he has the privilege, and bang! it goes just like that. If a fellow could kiss all the little, kissable mouths he sees he wouldn't have time to eat. Go on, my dear, give me a nice, blushing lip. Darn it all, why did the Great Creator make them so tempting and then endow them with a silent way of saying, 'Don't You Dare Wrong Me.' Just another word or two in order to growl at these modest men for kicking about high skirts. Rate, guys, if you don't quit it they'll put 'em down on us and then you'll wish you'd kept 'em. What beauty you! Beauty was made to be seen and you not to be heard. Long skirts covereth a multitude of shins that just as well be covered by silk stockings. Lotsa men condemn their wives for buying silk stockings, and perhaps they're half a mile to see some other fellow's wife with them on. Oh, we're a great bed of ants, we are. 'Tz all right, though. Let's go."

"A BATCH."

If there's anything doing, Oswald aims to be in the thickest of it. Here he comes with a dose of tolerance, common sense and some of the rest of it. Men have smoked since Walter Raleigh started the gosh-darned habit and if anyone can prove to me that the moral sense of our mere males has deteriorated since I'll get down on my hands and knees and roll a peanut around the City Hall Plaza for a week.

All these female superficialities should be viewed with amusement and interest. Because they are only the humorous side of a distinct movement toward SELF-DETERMINATION toward morality by conscientious disregard of moral law. The human race has come to what it is from a lowly tadpole and anyone who fears for the future of women had better take a one-way ticket to some feeble-minded home.

VIERRA DEFEATS RAMIES IN CLEVER FEATHERWEIGHT BOUT

GOODWIN AND KNOWLES TURN IN BEST SCORES IN ATHENIAN-NILE CLUB GOLF TOURNAMENT

SMALL CROWD SITS IN AT BEST BOXING SHOW OFFERED IN LONG TIME

Young Farrell Again Defeated By Lynch; Heavyweight Boxers Provide Thrills.

By BOB SHAND.

Several thousand citizens and citizenesses who went to the Auditorium last night to scoff remained to cheer. The general feeling among the regular customers prior to the weekly little party was that the card did not amount to much especially with a pair of humming birds like Benny Vierra and Eddie Ramies as the headliner, but from the curtain raiser, which ended in a one-round knockout, to the final battle which was the niftiest featherweight tangle seen here in many a day, there was nothing but action. Every bout was a hummer. There were fast boxing exhibitions, diving-dog slam-bang bouts, and a pair of heavyweight muscled that had the customers on their feet crying for a knockout. Which goes to prove that you never can tell just by looking at the card on paper.

Vierra took the decision from Ramies in the main event because he out-smarted the San Francisco boy. Vierra looks better every time he starts and he is going to surprise the clientele some fine night by knocking some young gent for a goal. Benny's punch is coming slowly, but surely. He rocked Ramies with right crosses last night that had a lot of power behind them and he made his own openings. Vierra's plan was to entice Ramies into leading and then as Spec mislaid with his left the Vierra right went crashing to the chin. It was real boxing science and the boys and girls who did not think very much of the featherweights any how, stuck around long enough to give the kids a big hand. Ramies is no slouch, but the Vierra entry has a world of class.

Young Farrell will have to be put out on pasture. Last night he beat his eighth opponent in nine weeks, which is too much for any little four-rounder. His scrap with Lynch was a repetition of their previous meeting, the San Francisco boy heading him off by taking the decision. Lynch knows as much about leading as George Gibbons knows about the fourth dimension, but he doesn't have to lead to beat a lot of fighters. Farrell was visibly stale last night and although he was trying hard all the way he was never in the running. Lynch is hitting better and making his punches to perfection.

Ray Pelkey Gets a Draw With Charles Lloyd.

Charles Lloyd had a shade the better of the going with Ray Pelkey, the draw in this decision was fair enough, as Pelkey was coming fast at the finish. The heavyweights stepped around for four rounds with all the ease and agility of a pair of cats and they gave the customers a great run for their money. Pelkey wore out his teeth chewing gum while Lloyd almost scolded himself to death. Pelkey's long swings occasionally found their mark, but as a rule they were mostly too high and did no damage. They will probably be re-matched. Chick Roach took the decision from Dick Wallace after four earnest rounds. Roach is strictly a body fighter and puts everything he has behind his punches. He has no sense of direction but enough bludgeoned to give him the edge on the fighting.

Soldier Bill Snyder soldiered on the job and lost a decision to Jack Morris. The military man appeared to have a punch but he was too busy displaying a sickly sort of grin that he had no time for the real serious business of the evening. The more Morris hit him, the more Snyder smiled. In some other kind of a contest the soldier might have had a chance of coping the decision, but in the way the San Leander entry was tossed "em into the pantry the end was apparently early in the fight.

Frankie McCann Stops Britt in the Third.

Frankie McCann gave Frankie Britt such a wallop in the pantry that the referee had to stop the bout in the third round. Britt's hands were down and he had been backed into his own corner with a series of rights and lefts to the stomach that left him dazed and helpless. Britt is a real fighter and gave McCann a battle while it lasted, but in the way the San Leander entry was tossed "em into the pantry the end was apparently early in the fight.

Al Crisp, a youngster from Twenty-third avenue who is being groomed by Frankie Edwards, was the sensation of the evening. Up against an experienced boy like Johnny Carlee, Crisp was not counted much of a chance, but Al found an opening in the middle of the first round, shot an uppercut right to the point of the chin and Carlee went down and stayed down. It was a clean knockout. The dark days of the war were recalled when Jim McLaflerty, the noted four-minute orator, climbed into the ring and out-shamed Sammy Shortridge. Jim made an appeal for the Salvation Army and a flock of ladies with their tambores loaded with silver later admitted that McLaflerty is some little spellbinder.

Bankers' League

The Central Bank won its fifth straight game in the Bankers' League, by defeating the Mercantile Bank 6 to 7. Teddall was knocked for 12 hits while Gustin was out but S. O'Connell at short for the Central played a fine game.

Benefit Boxing Show Tonight in San Francisco

Disabled War Veterans to Offer List of All-Star Contests.

The mayor's citizens' committee, augmented by a corps of prominent society women of San Francisco, headed by Mrs. D. C. Jackling, will stage a boxing program at the San Francisco auditorium tonight, the proceeds of which will be utilized by the citizens' committee during the last week in June for the entertainment of the thousands of wounded and disabled American heroes who will come here for the Disabled Veterans' national convention. Each of the eleven "main-event" attractions promises action aplenty, and the entire card presents probably the most attractive program that has been staged in this city since the revival of boxing and athletic sports in the city.

Young George of Los Angeles, champion of the "Dynamite Kid" by the name of the sunny south, has been here for two days training for his contest with Johnnie Burns, who scored a decision over the Los Angeles man in Oakland some weeks ago. George is confident of coming out on top in tonight's meeting, while Burns seems to be hopeful of repeating his previous victory over the southerner.

The Thomas-Gastine and Walters-Emmal contest will enable the fans to pick out their favorites as to ability, as the two bouts will be drawn decisions.

Three "comedy" bouts, with the kingly funmakers of the American boxing ring in action, will tone up the serious side of the program; Willie Meehan, Bill Larue, Will Blanchfield, Scotty Butterworth and Pickles Martin.

The show starts at 8 o'clock. Prices range from $1 to $5.

Sacco Arrives in North For His Bout With Joe Gorman

PORTLAND, Ore., May 18.—Fresh from a four-round verdict over Bob Michaels, the New York lightweight, Jimmy Sacco of Boston arrived in Portland yesterday for his bout with Seattle's Joe Gorman at the armory tonight.

Sacco is the first to score a verdict over Michaels, who in five starts in the Northwest since his arrival from New York was defeated for the first time by Sacco at Seattle Tuesday night.

OREGON TRIMS WHITMAN. Eugene, Ore., May 18.—The University of Oregon nine defeated Whitman College here 7 to 5 in a fast ball game. Baldwin, pitching for the University, won his own game when he slammed out a three-base hit in the eighth with two men on, bringing in the two scores by which Oregon won the game.

Score: R. H. E. Oregon, 7 5 1; Whitman, 5 7 0.

Batteries—Baldwin, and Leslie; Sherwood, Knudsen and Walters.

LIVERMORE TOSERS WIN. Livermore defeated the smaller Tailors 4 to 3 in a soccer game full of heavy hitting. Vukota started with the ball getting two shots and a double.

Center fanned 11 men but the Livermore boys got their hits when they needed them. Livermore scored twice in the first on Vukota's triple and Hansen's double and once in the second when Keller walked and Silva batted him in. The Tailors scored in the third and fourth, but Vukota's double and Hansen's single sent Livermore into the lead again. Then the Tailors scored twice in the seventh, after two trips to the showers and a sacrifice to win the game for Livermore.

SMALLEY TAILORS. LIVERMORE. R. H. E. Livermore, 4 3 0; Smalley Tailors, 3 4 1.

Batteries—Livermore, 4 3 0; Smalley Tailors, 3 4 1.

PACKERS TROUNCE TRACY. The Del Norte Packers No. 6 won a hard-fought game from Tracy at Tracy by the score of 6 to 3. The Packers started early to spike the rubber, hitting four runs in the first three innings. A hit in the fourth by Garthoff's boss gave them their victory.

Score: R. H. E. Packers, 6 3 0; Tracy, 3 4 1.

Batteries—Packers, 6 3 0; Tracy, 3 4 1.

FOREST CAMP WINS GAME. Forest Camp, No. 102, defeated Wedgewood Camp, No. 62, by a 7 to 2 score in the Woodmen of World League. The score: Forest Camp, 7; Wedgewood Camp, 2.

Score: R. H. E. Forest Camp, 7 2 0; Wedgewood Camp, 2 7 0.

Batteries—Forest Camp, 7 2 0; Wedgewood Camp, 2 7 0.

OAKLAND CAMP WINS. Oakland Camp No. 91, Woodmen of the World, found little trouble in slipping the Tailors Camp 4 to 3 in a friendly game.

Score: R. H. E. Oakland Camp, 4 3 0; Tailors Camp, 3 4 1.

Batteries—Oakland Camp, 4 3 0; Tailors Camp, 3 4 1.

Score: R. H. E. Oakland Camp, 4 3 0; Tailors Camp, 3 4 1.

Jack Dempsey, Manager Kearns Due from Paris

Heavyweight Champion Has Number of Offers to Appear in Ring.

NEW YORK, May 18.—Jack Dempsey and his manager, Jack Kearns, return to the United States tomorrow on the Aquitania, after a brief trip to Paris, London and Berlin. While abroad the champion signed an agreement for a return match with Georges Carpentier some time within the next year. Boxing experts profess little faith in the pulling power of the Carpentier match. Harry Wills, negro heavyweight, looks as the most formidable of Dempsey's rivals, and reports of an offer for a contest between them in Montreal, July 1, are coupled with statements that Tex Rickard and Frank Plourney, Madison Square Garden promoters, will make them a proposition.

Offers for a bout with Louis Firpo, pride of the Argentine, in Buenos Aires, and a possible return all of the fans would like to see. Stayed 12 rounds with Dempsey some time ago, are also in prospect.

GOLF FACTS worth knowing

Q. In a four-ball match are the players of one side entitled to force the player of the other side whose ball is further away on the putting green to put first?

A. No, in a four-ball match the players of a side may play in the order they choose.

Q. Are there any conditions under which a player is allowed to lift and drop of place without penalty a ball that lies in a hazard?

A. Yes, the provision which permits a ball to be lifted and dropped away from a drain pipe or implement used by the green-keeper in the upkeep of the course and the like, applies in the case of a ball that lies in a hazard.

Q. What is the penalty in both match and medal play where a player strikes the wall of a sand trap in making his back swing?

A. There is no penalty in either case.

Q. Please give the correct decision in the following case: In a four-ball match between A and B, and C and D, A has a side ball with C. With the four balls on the putting green, B puts and the ball strikes the wall of a sand trap. Can C claim to have holed out on his previous stroke?

A. No, in a four-ball match a ball replaced by that of another player must be replaced.

Q. In a recent match in which I was teamed with our club professional against two other members of the club, I asked my partner's advice as to the proper club to use at a certain hole. One of my opponents claimed the hole for that reason.

A. No, a player has the right to ask advice of his partner at any and all times.

CHICAGO, May 18.—Jack Schaefer, champion 150-pounder, will start tonight on the third day of his final block of his 1500-point match with E. Walker Cochran, Iowa star, with only an 81-point lead as a result of the challenge game.

Early in the play last night Schaefer's lead was 150 points, but he fell two short of taking the block, which went to Schaefer 45 to 48. The score now stands: Schaefer, 1000; Cochran, 919.

Semi-Finals in Southern Cal. Golf Reached

Championship Certain to Remain in South For Another Year.

LOS ANGELES, May 18.—The semi-final round of play in the annual state women's golf championship tournament was scheduled to get under way on the courts of the Annandale Country Club here today, with four favorites all from Southern California, meeting for the honor of participation in the titular match tomorrow.

Regardless of who wins the remaining matches, the championship will stay in Southern California for another year. This was decided yesterday's play, when Mrs. A. L. Pommer of San Francisco, the last of the northern entrants to survive the qualifying and preliminary championship flights, was eliminated by Miss Margaret Camero, Northern California title holder, 3 up and 7 to go.

Miss Cameron's stellar brand of golf was the feature of the day. Out in 41, she played the next six in par, but dropped two strokes on the long sixteenth and two more on the eighteenth, finishing with an 82 card.

Other favorites finished with colors flying high. Miss Doreen Kavanagh, Coronado, present state champion and holder of the Southern California title, won from Miss Mildred Landreth, 5 and 4, and Miss Mary K. Browne, Santa Monica, former Southern California champion, triumphed 6 and 5 over Mrs. L. H. Kennett, Coronado, won from Miss Maude Bell, Midwick, at the twentieth hole.

At Sequoyah yesterday the Athenian-Nile golfers held the concluding half of their annual tournament in which over sixty players participated. William Knowles, who was tied for sixth place at Claremont last week with a net score of 74, turned in an excellent 91-15-76 yesterday at Sequoyah, which gave him a total of 150. C. Goodwin, with a 19 handicap, had an identical net score over both courses, 93-19-74 at Claremont and 95-19-76 at Sequoyah. The Directors' Cup, which goes to the low net winner over the 36-hole route, was balloted for and went to C. Goodwin, who now takes his place on the list of fame at the Athenian-Nile Club. A play-off will be necessary to decide whose name will be inscribed on the perpetual trophy. This match will take place at Claremont.

Abe Leach, who plays most of his golf over the Diablo course, had a net score of 75 at Sequoyah and a stroke better than at Claremont 151 total gave him third place. F. H. Dailey, a ten handicap player at Claremont, was fourth with 76 net over both courses. Leon Clark, who is the most of his golf at Claremont, failed to duplicate his home course score of 74, but a 79 at Sequoyah gave him a total of 153 for seventh place. Harry Mosher, who was second to Clarence Graham last week, had to be satisfied with 82 at Sequoyah. This gave the banking golf expert a net total of 154 for eighth place. Clarence Graham, who led in the first round, was recently homeslumped unexpectedly over his home course and finished just out of the prize money.

Valentine Turns in Two Consistent Scores.

J. J. Valentine, who was one of the hot favorites, had two steady net scores of 75, which tied him up with the Napa player for fifth position. George Dow, although failing to duplicate his Claremont score, had a satisfactory total of 76-78, which tied with Leon Clark for seventh place. Dr. C. T. Jarvis, who has recently recovered from a severe sickness, showed signs of recovering his old time form when he led the field with the low gross score of 88-89-171. The doctor also finished in the handicap list with 165 net over 36 holes.

Wm. Knowles, 74-76 total 150 (30); C. Goodwin, 74-76 total 150 (38); A. P. Leach, 76-75 total 151 (36); J. J. Valentine, 75-77 total 152 (20); F. H. Dailey, 76-76 total 152 (20); Leon Clark, 74-79 total 153 (28); Geo. H. Dow, 75-78 total 153 (48); H. A. Mosher, 72-82 total 154 (36); Dr. C. T. Jarvis, 80-75 total 155 (16).

John Black Turns in Low Score at Claremont.

Claremont golfers got many wonderful results by arriving at Sequoyah with impossible handicaps for professional to surmount. Last week a foursome composed of Dr. C. F. Ford, Arthur Finley, S. N. Forsman and another twelve handicap player started out to play John Black with their best ball. At the match.

Early in the play last night Schaefer's lead was 150 points, but he fell two short of taking the block, which went to Schaefer 45 to 48. The score now stands: Schaefer, 1000; Cochran, 919.

Early in the play last night Schaefer's lead was 150 points, but he fell two short of taking the block, which went to Schaefer 45 to 48. The score now stands: Schaefer, 1000; Cochran, 919.

Series of Concerts By Oakland Students to be Broadcast by Tribune Station.

By special arrangement with the Board of Education, The TRIBUNE radio broadcasting station today became literally the mouthpiece of the department of music of the Oakland schools. Beginning next Tuesday evening The TRIBUNE will be on the air with the first of the most unusual series of concerts yet to be sent out by a western broadcasting station.

Not only will these concerts offer entertainment of a unique sort, but they will advertise to the State and to neighboring states what Oakland schools are doing in music. Glenn Woods, supervisor in music in the local schools, just returned from a four-months' trip in which he investigated other cities' accomplishments in music. Now Oakland will return the compliment, showing the other cities the things she has achieved.

The first concert in the series, which will begin at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening and last for three quarters of an hour, will be given by the more advanced music pupils of the graduating class of the Jefferson school on Thirty-eighth avenue. There are 70 youths and maidens in this class who have become adept in choral singing. It will not be possible for the whole 70 to sing into the radio transmitter at once, so one-third of that number, carefully chosen, will give the program.

This is now in the hands of Mrs. Grace Broyles, special music teacher at the Jefferson school, and Mrs. Elizabeth Sherman, principal. A list of the numbers to be given, for which the highest degree of entertainment and interest is promised, will shortly be announced. Arrangements for the succeeding concerts in the series are now being made by Woods. These will not be given at any regular intervals, but as rapidly as the separate groups offering the program can be tried out in the air and found capable.

The greatest variety will be sought in choice of concert groups and program arrangement. For instance, one concert will be given by a double "wood wind" quintet, which will consist of flutes, clarinets, English horns and similar instruments. Another will be offered by a string quartet, including two violins, viola and cello. Then there is a band concert in prospect.

Further details will be announced regarding the initial concert and the series during the next few days.

The TRIBUNE will not be on the air tomorrow evening, due to experimental work now under way to obtain the maximum efficiency from the new broadcasting studio. The Fairmont Hotel will use The TRIBUNE's line.

Reforestation Work on Pike's Peak Begun

(By International News Service)
COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., May 20.—Fifty men have begun reforestation work on the east slope of Pike's Peak. Six hundred thousand evergreen trees, both spruce and fir, will be planted this year, and it is estimated the work will require about six weeks. The work is being done under the supervision of the National Forest Service.

School Radio to Rival
Report Card, Says Hunter

Radio will soon rival the report card in the schools. This is the belief of Superintendent of Schools Fred M. Hunter, who commenced today on the first step in this replacement in the music department of the schools. Through the enterprise of The TRIBUNE, according to Hunter, in broadcasting the music of the school organizations by radio, parents will be able to learn for themselves the advancement made by their sons and it will not be necessary to send report cards. He said:

By FRED M. HUNTER
Superintendent of Schools

A great service is being done to the people of Oakland by The TRIBUNE in broadcasting the music of the schools into the homes by radio. I refer not to the quality of the music, though it is good, but to the opportunity given parents to learn what their children are doing.

The in actual organizations of the Oakland schools have now grown into a great agency for disseminating musical education. We have 33 orchestras and five school bands, not to mention several hundred soloists, pianists and vocalists. Some of the boys and girls of the Oakland schools are of what may be called the best professional talent. Most people do not know that, but The TRIBUNE radio will soon prove it.

I can imagine the feelings of a parent hearing his son's school orchestra sending concerts into all the homes of the city by radio. I believe that parents will soon be able to witness their children's improvement in music, not merely by report cards but by actual demonstration. In fact it is very possible that radio may soon open up other avenues of interest to the educator. We are just beginning to learn the radio. We are just in the experimental stage. What are the possibilities in the years and centuries to come? It staggers the imagination.

The broadcasting of the Oakland school music is the start of what may be a new era in understanding between parent and child. Educators will watch developments with great interest.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: (1) If I had a radio set with a range of 20 miles how much would I have to improve it to obtain a range of 50 or 60 miles?

2. What is the price of a TRIP-UNE crystal set complete? When may I purchase one?

FRED GEE JR.
Placerville.

1. To increase your receiving distance it would be necessary to employ the audio set.

2. The TRIBUNE set, with aerial wire 150 feet long makes a good tune, may be purchased at the West-Twelfth and Franklin streets, Oakland, for $8.66.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: (1) I would like to earn a pair of 2000 ohm double Marlock phones.

2. Give me the hookup for a single slider condenser and detector set.

3. Will a telephone receiver work on the above mentioned set, and do you have to solder your aerial joints?

WILLIAM LATING.
1190 Ninth street, Alameda.

1. Get six new three-months subscribers to The TRIBUNE.

2. Hookup as follows:

3. Yes, a telephone receiver will work. Yes, you should solder your aerial.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: (1) I have a home-made crystal set which consists of a tuning coil wound with No. 18 magnet wire. The tube is 10 inches long and three inches in diameter, with a crystal detector and phone condenser, and is connected with a regular phone. My aerial is 24 feet high, double wires and 60 feet long. I have tuned the set several times, but have no results as yet. Will you give me a correct diagram?

2. Is there any interference in the aerial if erected parallel with two street car wires within half a block of each other?

M. L.
930 Seventh street, Oakland.

1. Your diagram is not very clear so it is impossible to determine the exact trouble. You will find the correct diagram above in answer to William Lating.

2. No.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: (1) If I made a double-slider tuning coil two feet long and six inches in diameter would I be able to receive from a greater distance?

2. How many meters could I tune to on the above mentioned coil?

3. What size wire should I use for the coil?

MEMBER NO. 1493.
549 Filbert street, Oakland.

1. No.

2. It is impossible to say, not knowing the amount of wire or turns on the coil.

3. No, 18 enameled.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: (1) What is the specific gravity of the electrolyte in an Edison storage battery when dead, and when fully charged?

2. What is the exact voltage of each Edison cell when fully charged?

3. What is the formula of the electrolyte when it is newly put into the cell?

EDWARD CALLAHAN.
2550 Pleasant street.
1. The specific gravity of an Edison cell does not change in charge or discharge. It is not necessary to measure it.

2. This depends on the condition of the cell. Normally about 1.2 volts.

3. This depends upon the type of cell, usually about 1.225 specific gravity.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: (1) Please let me know how far I can hear with a Collins B. Kennedy regenerative set, with two stages of amplification, an aerial 35 feet high and 55 feet long—one wire.

2. What is the wave length?

3. How far could I receive if I add another wire to my aerial? The ground wire from the set are five feet long, running to the water pipe.

E. E. R.

1. This would depend to a large measure upon how efficiently the set is installed. Probably 200 miles.

2. About 120 meters.

3. This would help some, but it is

RUSH FOR SETS
MAKES IT HARD TO FILL ORDERS

Tribune Appliances Earned So Rapidly That Makers Are Pressed.

The TRIBUNE radio crystal receiving sets have been earned so fast that the manufacturers of the sets have been hard pressed to supply only a portion of the demand from those who wish to buy them. The Western Radio Electric Company, at Twelfth and Franklin streets, by actual count, has turned away more than 200 persons during the past week who were seeking to purchase the sets. A like number received the sets. To announce that a supply of The TRIBUNE radio sets were on hand at the store for distribution would bring more purchasers than there were sets, so it was decided to say nothing when a supply of the sets was delivered. Those who happened to call for them were the lucky ones.

RAPIDLY EARN SETS.

When it was arranged to supply the Western Radio Electric Company with TRIBUNE crystal sets, the manufacturers did not contemplate any such demand from The TRIBUNE. Boys have earned the sets so rapidly that there are today a dozen on the waiting list. They have earned their sets, had their orders verified and are waiting their turn. The boys who earn the sets are the first supplied.

While the great demand for the sets was not anticipated, it would be possible to supply everyone if material could be secured fast enough. Manufacturers of certain of the units which make up the set are delivering those pieces just so fast, and the manufacturers of the set itself are of course handicapped. Arrangements are now under way, however, to secure all the material needed for 500 sets. These will be made up rapidly and everyone will be happy.

GIVE SATISFACTION.

Out of the number of TRIBUNE crystal sets distributed, but two have been turned back under the guarantee, and both of these sets met up with some mishap after they were purchased. They were both replaced with sets which have rendered satisfaction. The set is absolutely the cheapest and best simple crystal set made, and is guaranteed to give satisfaction up to 20 miles for radiophone concerts.

The only way that the set can be improved is with a pair of more expensive phones. Such phones cost as much as the complete set itself. The phone that comes on the set is of 70 ohms only, but the results obtained are sometimes surprising.

Impossible to say how much.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: (1) How many sheets of tin foil should I use to make a condenser for a loose coupler?

2. Can you use wax paper instead of mica?

3. Is tin foil one and seven-eighths inches or four inches wide?

4. How far could I receive if I add another wire to my aerial? The ground wire from the set are five feet long, running to the water pipe.

HENRY SOPHER.
544 Hobart street.

1. If you refer to the phone condenser, use two sheets two by four inches.

2. Yes, wax paper is O. K.

3. No, you may use that size instead of the above if you desire.

RADIO RECEIVER IS USED WITHOUT ANY OUTSIDE AID

New Type Is Simple Cabinet With Several Yards of Wire in Back.

CHICAGO, May 18.—A new type of radio receiving device without aerial, electrical power line connection, or any assisting apparatus except several yards of wire tacked on the back of the cabinet which houses the set, was announced today by B. F. Messner, radio engineer.

Adequate reception of signals is accomplished by a super-amplifier which, according to Mr. Messner, magnifies the signal about 50 times more than the ordinary three-tube amplifier, rendering it fully as audible as signals received with aerial antennae. The receiving set is simplified, having only a button to turn on the power, generated in small storage batteries also housed in the cabinet, and a dial which, the wave lengths are marked. After adjusting the one dial to the wave length on which the operator wishes to receive, no other adjustments are necessary.

In demonstration today, signals from K. Y. W. broadcasting station, Chicago, were plainly received with the cabinet in an inside office of a large building.

"It is used just as well if the cabinet were buried 50 feet under ground," Messner said.

You Can Easily Make Your Loud Speaker

A few pieces of gas fixture, a receiver, and a large funnel are all that is needed to make the loud speaker shown in the illustration. The U shaped piece of gas fittings may be purchased in any hardware or ten cent store. Three of these are necessary. Also one small (2) is (straight) four inches in length. This makes a total of fifty cents for gas fittings, each length being worth about ten cents. Next purchase a large tin funnel in the same store for ten cents.

With a Few Gas Fittings and a Funnel a Loud Speaker Can Be Made.

A small round (flat) piece of brass (2) is (straight) four inches in length. This makes a total of fifty cents for gas fittings, each length being worth about ten cents. Next purchase a large tin funnel in the same store for ten cents.

All joints are sweated and wiped to make the piping air tight.

This little instrument works very well and after being polished looks like a factory job. It throws weak signals out into a room with a greater volume than most instruments of this type do.

Navy Yard Force
Cut 25 Per Cent

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—Orders have reached the Twelfth Naval district headquarters which will result in serious curtailment of the activities of Pacific Coast naval yards.

The order directs the reduction by one-quarter of the personnel of all navy yards, and it is estimated this will mean a loss to the Pacific coast in payroll of at least $2,000,000 a year.

It was said that 1200 men would be affected at Mare Island navy yard by the order and 800 at the Puget Sound navy yard.

The reduction in working forces is to be made by July 1 and is the result of the reduced appropriations for naval work made by Congress.

Girl Accepts Pulpit
Of Her Dead Father

(By International News Service)
ROCHESTER, N. H., May 20.—Miss Helen Wallace has been extended a call to become pastor of the Free Baptist Church at Alton.

She is the daughter of the late Rev. O. H. Wallace, who recently died while serving as pastor of the church.

Following his death his daughter supplied the pulpit and filled out the unexpired term, and the church society being well satisfied with her services extended her a call to become the permanent rector of the church. She accepted and has commenced her pastorate.

Fifteen Minutes of Radio Daily
By Edward M. Davis

RADIO DEFINITIONS.

Banked Coil—A coil of several layers, so wound as to reduce the distribution capacity, and consequently the dielectric losses. Instead of completing one layer and winding the next layer upon it, the turns alternate between layers.

Grid Leak—A high resistance connected in the grid circuit and used for the purpose of leaking off the charge in the grid condenser between groups of incoming oscillations. This resistance may vary from 75,000 to 2,000,000 ohms.

Filament or "A" Battery—In receiving circuits employing the vacuum tube a 6 volt battery, generally of the storage type, is connected to the terminals of the tube filament, through a variable resistance. The battery provides current for the filament which gives off electrons when heated. Current supplied by the battery ranges from 0.2 to 1.5 amperes depending upon the type of vacuum tube.

Plate or "B" Battery—A source of current supply in the plate circuit. Variations of this current produce audible sounds in the receiving telephones. A type in general use consists of 15 small dry cells, sealed in a block with insulating compound and having a potential of 22.5 volts. This battery may also be of the lead plate or alkaline types in which case it may be recharged when exhausted.

Loop Aerial—A number of turns of wire wound upon a framework. Strongest signals are received when the plane of the coil is in the direction of the transmitting station, so that this type of aerial possesses valuable properties as a direction finder. When connected to very sensitive circuits using amplification, this form of antenna will receive radio signals from long distances.

Honeycomb Coils—A form of tuning inductance consisting of a coil so wound as to reduce the distributed capacity to a minimum. This is accomplished, by crossing the turns of the layer over the preceding layer at an angle. This type of coils is usually constructed in units having different numbers of turns so that combinations may be selected for a particular range of wave lengths.

Static—When an accumulation of electric charges in the atmosphere are emitted and reproduced by induction in receiving sets. The induced current produces a sharp grinding sound which causes serious interference with the reception of radio signals.

N. Y. to Broadcast
News; Instruction

NEW YORK, May 18.—The municipal broadcasting station which will be operated by the City of New York will open about May 22, according to the present plans of Mayor Hyman. Although no definite program has been arranged it is thought that the city will broadcast a great amount of educational matter and health talks which will be interspersed freely with a variety of good music and other entertainment, $50,000 having been appropriated for the construction of the plant.

TOWN IS DOWN AND OUT.

LONDON.—During the cotton boom two years ago the residents of Oldham, Lancashire, made millions on paper through speculation in the shares of local mills. Now the boom has collapsed and the whole town is in poverty.

Fahrenheit—Thermometer whose freezing point is at 32 and the boiling point at 212.

Febly damp—A train of oscillations having many complete oscillatory motions.

BROADCASTING
RADIO SCHEDULE

New List Prepared By Tribune Can Be Secured At Many Stores.

The new radio broadcasting schedules furnished by The TRIBUNE may be had at any of the following places for the asking: Advance Electric Company, Twelfth and Franklin streets, California; Electrical Construction Company, 320 Twelfth street; Oakland Electric Shop, 407 Twelfth street; Diamond Radio Store, 1536 Franklin street; Kimball Electric Company, 526 Thirteenth street; Thomas Day Company, 1720 Broadway, and the A. J. Vulcanizing Company, 2128 Hopkins street.

The schedules are complete for Northern California, giving the stations, their call numbers, and the hours when they broadcast.

The program is on one board and may be hung by the receiving set, and may be referred to for any schedule at any time of the day, covering both the bay and inland stations. Those residing outside the bay district may obtain the programs by sending a two-cent stamp to the radio editor of The TRIBUNE.

Station at Hale's
Will Open Monday

The radio broadcasting station of Hale Brothers, Inc., of San Francisco, which will be known as KPO, will be in operation next Monday, according to an announcement made today. Several tests have been made and KPO will go on the air daily from 9 until 10 o'clock a. m.

E. J. Martineau will be in charge of the station.

4 Emergency
Power Plants are Maintained

YOU MAY have confidence in the dependability of "Pacific Service." Four power-generating plants are maintained close to the centers of heaviest demand, just to supplement the power produced by the 28 hydro-electric plants that are located away up in the mountains. The power-generating machinery in these four plants is driven by steam, so they are called "steam-electric" plants.

The steam-electric plants operate continuously on lines carrying loads that fluctuate uncertainly. They "float" on the lines as regulators. Except in emergencies, they supply but a small volume of power at close range—enough to even up the difference between supply and demand. But—

Let a sudden demand arise, or something happen to a line of supply, and at once the steam-electric plants are speeded up to full productive power.

The steam-electric plants are maintained in readiness to insure heat until your dinner is cooked; until enough water for any household purpose is heated; until all the tasks of "Pacific Service"—domestic and industrial—are finished.

Ask the local P G and E office to tell you about other advantages of "Pacific Service."

A BEAUTIFUL PEACOCK
MONTCLAIR

As I sat dreaming about my future home on the half acre which I had just purchased, I fancied that I was the head of a huge Peacock, as I looked down behind me I saw my outspread tail like a great fan glittering in the sun. It seemed to include all Oakland.

There on the left lay a great beautiful feather—Fruitvale adjoining it was another—Fourth Ave. Heights—then Indian Glen and Crocker Highlands.

Directly in the middle was the most beautiful feather of all, Lake Merritt—then came Piedmont just below, then Rockridge and Claremont and the last feather of my tail was Berkeley.

It made me as proud as any Peacock that ever lived to feel that this was mine—all mine—this wonderful plumage—My City Oakland.

My fan tail seemed to rest on great green lawn—the Bay of San Francisco, with a violet grey background—Mount Tamalpais and the Marin County shore extending to north as far as the eye could see. Then San Francisco and down the Peninsula until one could fancy they saw San Jose.

The sky was turning to molten gold as the sun, a great ball of fire, seemed to sink into the ocean just outside the Golden Gate.

Was my dream really true, could it be possible that this wonderful homesite was mine? Yes—I had the deed to it, though I had only paid a small amount down, agreeing to pay ten dollars a month on the balance until paid.

I want my friends that are living in apartments in San Francisco to come over before the end of the week, for next Sunday the Realty Syndicate Co. is to have a Sale at Montclair and I want them to select one of these choice half acres near mine before they are all sold. It is only 45 minutes to San Francisco from here—closer than Berkeley or Fruitvale—in fact, my lot is as close to the Oakland City Hall as Fruitvale Ave. on the east or 60th St. on the north. It only takes me twelve minutes to drive down and eighteen minutes if I take the Traction Co. Bus and only one fare.

I am well pleased with the building activity in Montclair and the fine type of homes that they are, for this is a restricted residential district.

I would advise you to visit this wonderful property at once—select your homesite now before it is too late. These lots range from a quarter acre to one acre—a quarter acre is equal to four city lots and are priced from five hundred dollars up—on such terms that no one need hesitate.

Call Lakeside 1600—the Realty Syndicate Co. will be pleased to send a representative to show you the property at any time, you will be under no obligation to buy. Don't forget the Sale Sunday—take the Piedmont Ave. car, transfer at 40th St. to the Montclair bus. Realty Syndicate Company, 1440 Broadway, Oakland, California.
